

LABOR

LIKE CITY OF THE DEAD.

Great Strike is on in the Italian Capital.

Visitors Trying to Get Away, but Many Are Stalled.

Dutch Strikers Losing Ground. Fatal Riots Near Nishni Novgorod, Russia.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
ROME, April 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The aspect of Rome was completely changed early today. The gay crowded city of yesterday seemed dead. No cars passed through the streets, and even the street cars, which ran at long intervals, were escorted by police and were almost empty, as the people feared to ride in them because of the threats of the strikers. The shops were open, but the shutters were up, as the proprietors intended to be ready for any emergency. They were apprehensive of rioting and feared, as on other occasions, that their windows would be smashed.

The whole city was occupied by troops. Detachments of cavalry were posted on the squares and special details of soldiers and police stationed around the various hotels. Both are allied with the American Federation of Labor. The Amalgamated is only a local union, although its real headquarters are in Manchester, England. However, it belongs to that powerful organization, the Board of Building Trades, while the United Brotherhood does not.

Following the increase of wages granted to all carpenters, irrespective of affiliations, by builders last September, both unions came into conference at the convention of the Board of Building Trades in New Orleans. There an agreement was reached that each side should appoint a committee of five for the purpose of arbitrating their differences, and that committee could not agree, its ten members were to unite on the choice of an eleventh. The odd member was never appointed.

The George A. Fuller Construction Company, which has nine large buildings now in course of construction, is most vitally affected by the strike. Among a hundred big buildings now being erected in this city which have been effected, are the new customhouse and new Stock Exchange.

Unimportant encounters between the strikers and troops took place during the morning, the former wishing to hold meetings, which were forbidden, or to reach the center of the city, but the strikers were easily dispersed by cavalry charges.

During the morning an attempt was made by strikers to overthrow a street car, but it failed.

Five hundred French pilgrims arrived here today, and had some startling experiences. They got off at a station on the outskirts of Rome, so as to avoid going through the city, but there were no cars, and all kinds of wagons and cars were hired to take the pilgrims to the city. The men and women of the party arrived at the Garibaldi bridge just as a detachment of cavalry charged a mob, and a scene of indescribable confusion ensued. With screams and shouts, the pilgrims in their efforts to escape were scattered in all directions.

About the middle of the day the strikers succeeded in gathering in threatening numbers on the Corso Vittorio Emanuele, although in the center of the city, and detachments of troops charged, fired volleys, and dispersed them. About a dozen men were reported to have been killed, and the officers reported that order had been completely reestablished since noon, but Rome was still occupied by the military force, and the general strike continued. Many strikers were arrested during the day.

The government has determined to have a sufficient force of troops on hand to maintain order, under any circumstances, and has issued instructions to send ten more battalions of troops to Rome. They will arrive here today.

The Pope was much interested in the particulars of the strike. He said: "It is a sword with two edges."

He expressed sorrow at the damage done the interests of the city, and because the strike interfered with the Easter ceremonies. Instructions were issued to close the churches wherever disturbances occurred.

LIKELIHOOD OF A SETTLEMENT.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
ROME, April 8.—The Socialists have decided to propose that the differences between the typographers and their employers which brought about the general strike should be settled by arbitration. This proposition is likely to be accepted, in which case the general strike will be ended.

ON "UNFAIR" LIST.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
THE HAGUE, April 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The proposed bakers' strike in sympathy with the general water and land transportation strike has thus far proved a failure. The bakers are continuing work under military protection.

LOSING GROUND.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
STRIKE IN HOLLAND.
THE HAGUE, April 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The proposed bakers' strike in sympathy with the general water and land transportation strike has thus far proved a failure. The bakers are continuing work under military protection.

THE WORKMEN'S DEFENSE COMMITTEE has offered to call off the strike if the proposed "tyrannical" anti-strike law is abandoned.

In spite of the efforts of Socialists to postpone the discussion of the article of the anti-strike bill in the second chamber of the States General, article 1, guaranteeing freedom of labor against strikers, was passed today.

The members of the Liberal left declare they will not vote for article 2, which provides punishment for striking railroad men.

LAST DESPERATE RESORT.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
AMSTERDAM, April 8.—The workmen's Defense Committee has decided to proclaim a general strike of all the trades throughout the country.

The destinies of the employees of the government railway who have not struck are guarded by troops, as protection for the men's wives and children. The bakers' strikes and cars are similarly protected.

The employees of the river and canal navigation companies have decided to strike in sympathy with the railroad men. More trains are running today than yesterday. Locomotive Engineers' institute have unanimously tendered their services to the railroads. Their offers have been accepted, and a number of them are being employed as strikers.

The workmen's Defense Committee is anxiously awaiting reports from the delegates who were sent to Germany, France and England to appeal for the support of the trades unions of those countries.

TIES UP WORK.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A strike of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners is on in full force with the result that nearly every building in course of construction in the city is tied up.

In a few days unless the fight is settled between fifty and sixty thousand men of all building trades will be out of employment.

The strike is unique in the history of labor troubles in this city. There is no question of an increase of wages involved nor any matter of difference between employer and employee. It is a deliberate effort on the part of the United Brotherhood with a membership of nine or ten thousand men to force to the wall the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters. Both are allied with the American Federation of Labor. The Amalgamated is only a local union, although its real headquarters are in Manchester, England. However, it belongs to that powerful organization, the Board of Building Trades, while the United Brotherhood does not.

Following the increase of wages granted to all carpenters, irrespective of affiliations, by builders last September, both unions came into conference at the convention of the Board of Building Trades in New Orleans. There an agreement was reached that each side should appoint a committee of five for the purpose of arbitrating their differences, and that committee could not agree, its ten members were to unite on the choice of an eleventh. The odd member was never appointed.

The George A. Fuller Construction Company, which has nine large buildings now in course of construction, is most vitally affected by the strike. Among a hundred big buildings now being erected in this city which have been effected, are the new customhouse and new Stock Exchange.

Unimportant encounters between the strikers and troops took place during the morning, the former wishing to hold meetings, which were forbidden, or to reach the center of the city, but the strikers were easily dispersed by cavalry charges.

During the morning an attempt was made by strikers to overthrow a street car, but it failed.

Five hundred French pilgrims arrived here today, and had some startling experiences. They got off at a station on the outskirts of Rome, so as to avoid going through the city, but there were no cars, and all kinds of wagons and cars were hired to take the pilgrims to the city. The men and women of the party arrived at the Garibaldi bridge just as a detachment of cavalry charged a mob, and a scene of indescribable confusion ensued. With screams and shouts, the pilgrims in their efforts to escape were scattered in all directions.

About the middle of the day the strikers succeeded in gathering in threatening numbers on the Corso Vittorio Emanuele, although in the center of the city, and detachments of troops charged, fired volleys, and dispersed them. About a dozen men were reported to have been killed, and the officers reported that order had been completely reestablished since noon, but Rome was still occupied by the military force, and the general strike continued. Many strikers were arrested during the day.

The government has determined to have a sufficient force of troops on hand to maintain order, under any circumstances, and has issued instructions to send ten more battalions of troops to Rome. They will arrive here today.

The Pope was much interested in the particulars of the strike. He said: "It is a sword with two edges."

He expressed sorrow at the damage done the interests of the city, and because the strike interfered with the Easter ceremonies. Instructions were issued to close the churches wherever disturbances occurred.

LIKELIHOOD OF A SETTLEMENT.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
ROME, April 8.—The Socialists have decided to propose that the differences between the typographers and their employers which brought about the general strike should be settled by arbitration. This proposition is likely to be accepted, in which case the general strike will be ended.

ON "UNFAIR" LIST.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
THE HAGUE, April 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The proposed bakers' strike in sympathy with the general water and land transportation strike has thus far proved a failure. The bakers are continuing work under military protection.

LOSING GROUND.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
STRIKE IN HOLLAND.
THE HAGUE, April 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The proposed bakers' strike in sympathy with the general water and land transportation strike has thus far proved a failure. The bakers are continuing work under military protection.

THE WORKMEN'S DEFENSE COMMITTEE has offered to call off the strike if the proposed "tyrannical" anti-strike law is abandoned.

In spite of the efforts of Socialists to postpone the discussion of the article of the anti-strike bill in the second chamber of the States General, article 1, guaranteeing freedom of labor against strikers, was passed today.

The members of the Liberal left declare they will not vote for article 2, which provides punishment for striking railroad men.

LAST DESPERATE RESORT.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
AMSTERDAM, April 8.—The workmen's Defense Committee has decided to proclaim a general strike of all the trades throughout the country.

The destinies of the employees of the government railway who have not struck are guarded by troops, as protection for the men's wives and children. The bakers' strikes and cars are similarly protected.

The employees of the river and canal navigation companies have decided to strike in sympathy with the railroad men. More trains are running today than yesterday. Locomotive Engineers' institute have unanimously tendered their services to the railroads. Their offers have been accepted, and a number of them are being employed as strikers.

The workmen's Defense Committee is anxiously awaiting reports from the delegates who were sent to Germany, France and England to appeal for the support of the trades unions of those countries.

TIES UP WORK.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A strike of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners is on in full force with the result that nearly every building in course of construction in the city is tied up.

CYCLONE.

(CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.)

Mountain Railroad, was the first point heard from. Several houses were blown down there, and one man was seriously injured. The tornado came from the west and spent its force by the time it reached Bradford. It is feared the little town of Hiram, with a population of 150, has been wiped off the map. It is near Heber, and in the storm's track. Nothing has been thus far heard from it. It probably will be several days before the names of all who were killed by the tornado are known.

A special to the Gazette from Heber says that in the tornado which swept across this section last night A. C. Williams, living ten miles south of Heber, was killed. He was 70 years old and lived with his wife on one of the mountains south of this town. His house was caught up by the wind and thrown down the mountainside, he being killed. His wife was badly injured and is not expected to live. A white man named Houston, living near Williams, had both arms broken.

At Pangburn, six residences were blown down and a flock of sheep and a number of cattle, hogs and horses were killed.

Buck Neely of Searcy was in the storm, and was caught under a small tree which was blown down. He is not seriously hurt.

A large church near Pangburn was blown half a mile.

At Little Red Postoffice, Albert Kiler, His Majesty's Walker, Polk and Pollard and Tom King lost their houses, barns and other buildings.

Forty-three residences and sixteen barns, both under construction, were the record of the damage reported up to 8 o'clock tonight. The tornado swept everything in a path a mile wide, at Pangburn, Mrs. Horton and her child were badly hurt and are not expected to live. Two of the Pollards, near Albion, were badly hurt. A number of others were hurt, but not seriously.

STOLEN STOCK OF PETTICOATS.
NEW YORK, April 8.—Five thousand dollars' worth of petticoats were stolen from the offices of Klatsko & Miskend, clothing dealers, No. 11 Lispenard street, last night. Three men had engaged a whole floor of an office building on Canal street. The rear portions of the two buildings are close together. Last night neighbors heard a terrific explosion, as though the iron doors were being blown open. Today some of the goods were found on the roof of a Lispenard building, and more in the floor beneath it. A detachment of police was called to suppress them.

STUDENTS ON STRIKE.
MADISON (Wis.) April 8.—Led by the men of the Superintendent of Schools and actions of some of the best families in Madison, three hundred high school students went out on strike today for single or half-day sessions. They congregated in mobs about the High School building, and made such a disturbance that a detachment of police was called to suppress them.

LETTING GO OF MANCHURIA.
PEKING, April 8.—Today was the date of the expiration of the treaty of commerce between the United States and the province of Manchuria. During the past fortnight, the Russians have been removing their troops from the interior of the province, part of them going to Port Arthur and the others to stations on the railway, Manchuria.

The local governments are being transferred to the Chinese. Prince Ching, president of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, has expressed satisfaction at Russia's fulfillment of the agreement.

NEW STOCK ISSUE.
PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—Announcement has been made by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company that they will pay off the loans maturing in July next, and which aggregate about $40,000,000, with the proceeds of the June installment of the new stock, and not exercise their option of borrowing these loans.

The $40,000,000 was borrowed for the purpose of paying for improvements on the New York and Pennsylvania line between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh at the latter city.

PROBES WON THE DAY.
TOPEKA (Kan.) April 8.—Returns from the election in Kansas which held elections yesterday disclose the fact that the vote in favor of enforcing the prohibition law is the most overwhelming in the history of the State. A special effort was made by the opponents of prohibition to make a good showing at this election, and thus pave the way for a re-election campaign two years from now. Only six towns of any importance in the State voted in favor of a liberal policy toward the saloons.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES.
Before the close of the week the 2,000,000 bushels of grain that have been tied up in the Chicago River by the strike for the last two weeks, will be shipped to Buffalo and eastern ports.

J. Alden Anderson, Lieutenant-Governor of California, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given Tuesday in the Astor House, New York, by Joseph Steinhardt. Among those present were Mayor Low and Deputy Police Commissioner Piper.

Mrs. Yetta Brownstein, aged 36, and her two children were burned to death in their home in Philadelphia yesterday. Two other members of the family are in a hospital in a critical condition. The fire was caused by the overturning of an oil stove.

Over Owen & Co., one of the oldest drug firms in Chicago, confessed insolvency yesterday. The firm placed its liabilities at $762,730, and its assets at $215,557.

In a negro settlement at Waverly, Mo., a number of blacks started a riot over two of their number, who were running for Aldermen, and in trying to quell the disturbance Mark Crumpley, a deputy, shot and killed John Swanney, a negro. Deputy Marshal Wood McGraw was badly beaten by the negroes.

The trial of James Howard, charged with killing a Chinese boy at Fresno, yesterday. The panel was soon exhausted, and a special jury of 12 citizens of Woodford, an adjoining county, was ordered to be present in court tomorrow afternoon.

The French Bishop of Sze Chiao, the middle province in the western frontier of China, died yesterday. He had been in the province for several years.

PREPARING NEW DEAL.
French Politicians Paving Way for Breaking With Russia and Joining Hands with England and Italy.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PARIS, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Nothing has ever brought out the gradual weakening of French enthusiasm for Franco-Russian alliance so strongly as the present Balkan situation. Statesmen from the tribune in the chamber, and also inspired journalists give utterance to slighting views regarding Russia, with a ready sarcasm that would have shocked the whole nation two years ago.

The feeling seems to be spreading throughout the most thoughtful political quarters that the dual alliance does not represent the best interests of France, Russia or the rest of Europe. At political dinner given lately by a former foreign minister the guests, most of whom were men of first rank in public life, discussed at length the greater advantage of an Anglo-Franco-Italian alliance. This would have been sufficient to have ruined their careers six years ago. Germany's joining the Austro-Russian policy, taken in connection with certain Russian papers, not only hurts the strong Russian party, but further familiarizes the public with the idea of weakening this alliance. It is believed by most clear-minded men in the vanguard of French public life, that the alliance will not be in existence two years hence.

CABLE STEAMERS SAIL.
Leave London to Sail for Pacific to Lay Remaining Sections of the Cable from Manila.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
LONDON, April 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The cable steamers Anglia and Colonia sailed today to lay the remaining sections of the Commercial Pacific cable from San Francisco to Manila. It is expected that the cable from Honolulu to Manila by way of Midway Island and the Island of Guam, will be completed July 4.

REVISING THE CATECHISM.
CHICAGO, April 8.—The commission appointed by the order of the last general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, to consider the advisability of revising the catechism and order of worship, began its work today in the assembly rooms of the Methodist Book Concern. The commission elected Bishop Merrill chairman. The subject was discussed at length, but no definite action was taken. A number of sessions will be held, as the commission has a year or more to complete its work.

public life, discussed at length the greater advantage of an Anglo-Franco-Italian alliance. This would have been sufficient to have ruined their careers six years ago. Germany's joining the Austro-Russian policy, taken in connection with certain Russian papers, not only hurts the strong Russian party, but further familiarizes the public with the idea of weakening this alliance. It is believed by most clear-minded men in the vanguard of French public life, that the alliance will not be in existence two years hence.

CABLE STEAMERS SAIL.
Leave London to Sail for Pacific to Lay Remaining Sections of the Cable from Manila.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
LONDON, April 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The cable steamers Anglia and Colonia sailed today to lay the remaining sections of the Commercial Pacific cable from San Francisco to Manila. It is expected that the cable from Honolulu to Manila by way of Midway Island and the Island of Guam, will be completed July 4.

REVISING THE CATECHISM.
CHICAGO, April 8.—The commission appointed by the order of the last general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, to consider the advisability of revising the catechism and order of worship, began its work today in the assembly rooms of the Methodist Book Concern. The commission elected Bishop Merrill chairman. The subject was discussed at length, but no definite action was taken. A number of sessions will be held, as the commission has a year or more to complete its work.

STOLEN STOCK OF PETTICOATS.
NEW YORK, April 8.—Five thousand dollars' worth of petticoats were stolen from the offices of Klatsko & Miskend, clothing dealers, No. 11 Lispenard street, last night. Three men had engaged a whole floor of an office building on Canal street. The rear portions of the two buildings are close together. Last night neighbors heard a terrific explosion, as though the iron doors were being blown open. Today some of the goods were found on the roof of a Lispenard building, and more in the floor beneath it. A detachment of police was called to suppress them.

STUDENTS ON STRIKE.
MADISON (Wis.) April 8.—Led by the men of the Superintendent of Schools and actions of some of the best families in Madison, three hundred high school students went out on strike today for single or half-day sessions. They congregated in mobs about the High School building, and made such a disturbance that a detachment of police was called to suppress them.

LETTING GO OF MANCHURIA.
PEKING, April 8.—Today was the date of the expiration of the treaty of commerce between the United States and the province of Manchuria. During the past fortnight, the Russians have been removing their troops from the interior of the province, part of them going to Port Arthur and the others to stations on the railway, Manchuria.

The local governments are being transferred to the Chinese. Prince Ching, president of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, has expressed satisfaction at Russia's fulfillment of the agreement.

NEW STOCK ISSUE.
PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—Announcement has been made by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company that they will pay off the loans maturing in July next, and which aggregate about $40,000,000, with the proceeds of the June installment of the new stock, and not exercise their option of borrowing these loans.

The $40,000,000 was borrowed for the purpose of paying for improvements on the New York and Pennsylvania line between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh at the latter city.

PROBES WON THE DAY.
TOPEKA (Kan.) April 8.—Returns from the election in Kansas which held elections yesterday disclose the fact that the vote in favor of enforcing the prohibition law is the most overwhelming in the history of the State. A special effort was made by the opponents of prohibition to make a good showing at this election, and thus pave the way for a re-election campaign two years from now. Only six towns of any importance in the State voted in favor of a liberal policy toward the saloons.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES.
Before the close of the week the 2,000,000 bushels of grain that have been tied up in the Chicago River by the strike for the last two weeks, will be shipped to Buffalo and eastern ports.

J. Alden Anderson, Lieutenant-Governor of California, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given Tuesday in the Astor House, New York, by Joseph Steinhardt. Among those present were Mayor Low and Deputy Police Commissioner Piper.

Mrs. Yetta Brownstein, aged 36, and her two children were burned to death in their home in Philadelphia yesterday. Two other members of the family are in a hospital in a critical condition. The fire was caused by the overturning of an oil stove.

Over Owen & Co., one of the oldest drug firms in Chicago, confessed insolvency yesterday. The firm placed its liabilities at $762,730, and its assets at $215,557.

In a negro settlement at Waverly, Mo., a number of blacks started a riot over two of their number, who were running for Aldermen, and in trying to quell the disturbance Mark Crumpley, a deputy, shot and killed John Swanney, a negro. Deputy Marshal Wood McGraw was badly beaten by the negroes.

The trial of James Howard, charged with killing a Chinese boy at Fresno, yesterday. The panel was soon exhausted, and a special jury of 12 citizens of Woodford, an adjoining county, was ordered to be present in court tomorrow afternoon.

The French Bishop of Sze Chiao, the middle province in the western frontier of China, died yesterday. He had been in the province for several years.

PREPARING NEW DEAL.
French Politicians Paving Way for Breaking With Russia and Joining Hands with England and Italy.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PARIS, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Nothing has ever brought out the gradual weakening of French enthusiasm for Franco-Russian alliance so strongly as the present Balkan situation. Statesmen from the tribune in the chamber, and also inspired journalists give utterance to slighting views regarding Russia, with a ready sarcasm that would have shocked the whole nation two years ago.

The feeling seems to be spreading throughout the most thoughtful political quarters that the dual alliance does not represent the best interests of France, Russia or the rest of Europe. At political dinner given lately by a former foreign minister the guests, most of whom were men of first rank in public life, discussed at length the greater advantage of an Anglo-Franco-Italian alliance. This would have been sufficient to have ruined their careers six years ago. Germany's joining the Austro-Russian policy, taken in connection with certain Russian papers, not only hurts the strong Russian party, but further familiarizes the public with the idea of weakening this alliance. It is believed by most clear-minded men in the vanguard of French public life, that the alliance will not be in existence two years hence.

CABLE STEAMERS SAIL.
Leave London to Sail for Pacific to Lay Remaining Sections of the Cable from Manila.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
LONDON, April 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The cable steamers Anglia and Colonia sailed today to lay the remaining sections of the Commercial Pacific cable from San Francisco to Manila. It is expected that the cable from Honolulu to Manila by way of Midway Island and the Island of Guam, will be completed July 4.

REVISING THE CATECHISM.
CHICAGO, April 8.—The commission appointed by the order of the last general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, to consider the advisability of revising the catechism and order of worship, began its work today in the assembly rooms of the Methodist Book Concern. The commission elected Bishop Merrill chairman. The subject was discussed at length, but no definite action was taken. A number of sessions will be held, as the commission has a year or more to complete its work.

STOLEN STOCK OF PETTICOATS.
NEW YORK, April 8.—Five thousand dollars' worth of petticoats were stolen from the offices of Klatsko & Miskend, clothing dealers, No. 11 Lispenard street, last night. Three men had engaged a whole floor of an office building on Canal street. The rear portions of the two buildings are close together. Last night neighbors heard a terrific explosion, as though the iron doors were being blown open. Today some of the goods were found on the roof of a Lispenard building, and more in the floor beneath it. A detachment of police was called to suppress them.

STUDENTS ON STRIKE.
MADISON (Wis.) April 8.—Led by the men of the Superintendent of Schools and actions of some of the best families in Madison, three hundred high school students went out on strike today for single or half-day sessions. They congregated in mobs about the High School building, and made such a disturbance that a detachment of police was called to suppress them.

"The real good of all work . . . depends on the final worth of the thing you make."

—John Ruskin

The final worth of

Gorham Silver

has been acclaimed by three generations as denoting its "real good," which depends equally upon its faultless design, its admirable workmanship and its sterling quality of material.

All responsible jewelers keep it

F. F. MERRIMAN W. A. INNES

Easter Oxfords

You'll want something quite new for Easter. It will be difficult to find any footwear more appropriate than the dainty new oxfords just sent us from the east.

We think they're a little newer than any yet shown in Los Angeles. Every woman who has seen them thinks so.

A perfect abundance of styles.

INNES SHOE CO.

258 South Broadway
231 West Third Street

Our good repairs will make a watch as good as new. We'll fix your watch.

J. Abramson

FOR CATARRHAL INDIGESTION

Pe-ru-na Is a Specific.

Congressman Thompson Says: "I Highly Recommend Its General Use."

Hon. Chas. W. Thompson.

Men of prominence all over the United States are commending Peruna.

Over fifty members of our National Congress have either used Peruna themselves or noted its benefit to the extent that they do not hesitate to give it public endorsement.

No other remedy in the world ever received such honorable and unequalled endorsement.

Governors, Mayors, Generals, Admirals, Consuls and scores of other government officials speak in high praise of it.

Thousands of people in the humbler walks of life rely upon it as a family medicine. Send for a free book of testimonials.

Fine Pianos at Little Cost . . .

$6.00 Down, $6.00 a Month.

NO INTEREST

You cannot afford to miss such an opportunity.

Standard highest grade makes, prices ranging from upward. Reduction of $100 to $200 from factory.

The Time is Limited.

See Us at Once.

FITZGERALDS

113 S. SPRING ST.

Yes?

That Wurzbacher Bock was fine! Sold a carload of it with a rush. Next in turn at this Easter Season is Oelsner's X X X X ORIGINAL PILSENER BEER!

Pilsener Burger Brau

A carload, imported direct from BURGERLICHES, BRAUHAUS PILSEN, BOHEMIA

On Tap Today at the Imperial

Special Music today, comprising many Epicurean Surprises.

Imperial Cafe, 243 South Broadway

Cleaver's Laundry Co.

Diseases Routed

See the Kelp Curiosities

SPORTING RECORD
NO TRIALS OF SHAMROCK.

Boat Vastly Superior to the Old One.

The Wind She Outclasses the Ex-Cup Challenger.

The One Oakland Winner
San Francisco's Easy Game.
Portland Downed Again.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
PORTLAND (Eng.) April 8.—With
the wind blowing from the west, the
Portland Shamrock III and the
Oakland Shamrock I were out on the
water at 10 a.m. The Shamrock III
was a good length
ahead of the Shamrock I, and was
well on her way to the finish when
the Shamrock I was forced to stop
because of a leak in the engine.
The Shamrock III won the race by
a large margin.

Corbett ever since he came East, and it is a well-known fact that they advised him money while training for his first fight with McGovern. Finding that he has backing for the amount necessary for another match, Corbett will no doubt be prepared to meet Mc-Govern in another battle.

DAINTY THE ONE WINNER.
OFF DAY AT OAKLAND.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—Dainty, winner of the handicap, was the only favorite to land at Oakland today, and it was only through the mastery ride of Bonner that she beat Grafton head. Charles McCafferty took two horses out of selling races. He bid up Tuffa from $600 to $900, and Antelope from $600 to $1000, at which price he secured them. The weather was perfect and the track fast. Results:

Futurity course, selling: Judge
Voorheis 104 (I. Powell), 12 to 1, won; Puss in Boots, 104 (Bonner), 11 to 10, second; J. H. Bennett, 104 (Bell), 40 to 1, third; time 1:12. Don Vivas, Gilbert, Clivoso, Alice Carey, John Boggs, Egyptian Princess and Flourish also ran.

Four and a half furlongs, purse:
Keogh, 108 (Bozeman), 9 to 1, won;
Sacred, 106 (Bonner), 2 to 1, second;
Military, 108 (J. T. Sheehan), 7 to 1, won;
5, third; time 0:55. Dr. Powell, Planet and Alamo also ran.

One mile and a quarter, selling:
Tuffa, 109 (J. T. Sheehan), 7 to 1, won;
Blessed Damozel, 98 (Bonner), 7 to 2, second; Expedient, 108 (I. Powell), 12 to 1, third; time 1:44. Tom Slavin, Star Cotton, Rosalie and Tuller also ran.

One mile and seventy yards, handicap, selling: Dainty, 112 to 1, won;
Grafton, 110 (Frawley), 9 to 1, second;
Bill Masie, 103 (I. Powell), 15 to 1, third; time 1:45. The Pretter, Searcher, Watercure and John Lyons also ran.

One mile, selling: Antelope, 108 (J.
Sheehan), 11 to 2, won; Ilowah, 109
(Frawley), 9 to 2, second; Golden Light, 108 (Bonner), 9 to 5, third; time 1:43. Oriana, Sleeping Child, Rose of May and Jim Hale also ran.

Six furlongs, selling: E. M. Brattain, 109 (I. Powell), 5 to 1, won; Jockey Club, 98 (J. T. Sheehan), 14 to 1, second; Fort Wayne, 98 (Bonner), 15 to 1, third; time 1:14. Glendinning, Sol Lichtenstein, Bassenzo and The Pride also ran.

PORTLAND TO THE WALL.
SENATORS' GAME ERRORLESS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
SACRAMENTO, April 8.—Playing errorless ball behind Young, Sacramento succeeded in sending Portland to the wall again. During the first five innings it was a pitchers' battle between Young and Engle, with no advantage on either side, not a run being made up to the close of the inning. In the sixth, however, the Senators got their eye on Engle's delivery and there was nothing more. Young kept up his gait to the end. Score:

SACRAMENTO.
A. B. R. H. R. P. O. A. E.
Duffy, 2d 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
McAuliffe, 1st 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Egan, 3d 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Tamm, 4th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Hogan, 5th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Casey, 6th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Shuehan, 7th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Total 6 6 0 6 0 0 0
Total 6 6 0 6 0 0 0

PORTLAND.
A. B. R. H. R. P. O. A. E.
Van Buren, 1st 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Shaffer, 2d 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Nadeau, 3d 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Andrews, 4th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Zinn, 5th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Harlow, 6th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Vigilance, 7th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Total 6 6 0 6 0 0 0
Total 6 6 0 6 0 0 0

SCORE BY INNINGS.
Sacramento 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Portland 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Base hits 9 11 11 9 8 8 1

SUMMARY.
Three-base hits—Nadeau (2).
Sacramento 12 pulled ahead.
First base on error—Sacramento, 2.
First base on called balls—Off Young, 5; off Engle, 3.
Left on bases—Sacramento 6; Portland, 5.
Hit by pitcher—Harlow, Andrews.
Double play—Smith to Shaffer; Hogan to Graham; Engle to Anderson to Shaffer; Zinn to Harlow.
Time of game—2h. 3m.
Umpire—Lavy.

SAN FRANCISCO CONTEST.
"FRISCO'S LUCKY THIRTEEN."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—A glance at the summary of today's game tells how the contest was decided.
Hickey of Seattle could not find the plate, and thirteen of the locals were given free transportation to the first station. In addition, the home men blasted him up for ten hits, and the four errors contributed by his team helped swell the run-getting of the victors. The score:

SEATTLE.
A. B. R. H. R. P. O. A. E.
Zeigler, 1st 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Hannigan, 2d 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
O'Hara, 3d 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Schwartz, 4th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Hurley, 5th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Wilson, 6th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Hickner, 7th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Total 6 6 0 6 0 0 0
Total 6 6 0 6 0 0 0

SAN FRANCISCO.
A. B. R. H. R. P. O. A. E.
Shay, 1st 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Lynch, 2d 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Krug, 3d 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Irwin, 4th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Fahst, 5th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Hodson, 6th 1 1 0 1 0 0 0
Total 6 6 0 6 0 0 0
Total 6 6 0 6 0 0 0

SCORE BY INNINGS.
Seattle 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
San Francisco 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Base hits 10 10 10 10 10 10 10

SUMMARY.
Two-base hit—Hannigan.
Sacramento hit—Lynch.
Base on error—Seattle, 1; San Francisco, 1.
Base on called balls—Off Hickey, 1; off Hannigan, 1.
Left on bases—Seattle, 2; San Francisco, 1.
Hit by pitcher—Meany.
Double play—Schwartz to Hurley; Shay to Burra to Fahst.
Wild pitch—Hickner.
Time of game—2h. 3m.
Umpire—O'Connell.

GAME POSTPONED.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
PHILADELPHIA (Pa.) April 8.— Rain today caused the postponement of the game between the Philadelphia
American and National League clubs.

PUGILISTIC CONTESTS.
MADE LEGAL IN MEXICO.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
DOUGLAS (Ariz.) April 8.—An amusement company here who just received information from the City of Mexico that prize fights will in the future be allowed in all the States of Mexico. For a number of years leading pugilistic promoters of this country have been trying to secure the right to pull off contests along the border on the Mexican side of the line. Notable among them was Dan Smart, who made an effort to get a permit for fights in the bull ring across from El Paso.

President Diaz has been opposed to revive boxing, but has changed his mind on account of pressure brought to bear by many leading men of Mexico. A company is now being formed in Douglas to build a building with a seating capacity of 10,000 and to bring together some of the best men in the fighting game. It will offer them purses and a guarantee of protection from the authorities. An offer has been made to Harry Corbett of San Francisco asking him to act as matchmaker for the company. If his services can be secured he will be asked to come at once and prepare bids for some championship battles.

WORK ON CUP DEFENDER.
CLOSING SEAMS AND SPACES.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
BRISTOL (H. L.) April 8.—The principal work on the cup defender Reliance today was the closing of the seams and spaces at the butts with cement. There were no dents on the underbody, so careful has been the riveting, while only a few have been found on the nickel steel on the top sides.

It is the hope now that the Reliance will be rigged and ready for her first trial on April 22.

SPORTS ON BERKELEY OVAL.
NO EXISTING RECORD BROKEN.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
BERKELEY, April 8.—No existing record was broken or seriously threatened in the thirteen regular events of the University of California annual championship field day, held on the Berkeley oval this afternoon before 400 spectators, but little Abadie individually tried to lower the time in the fifty-yard dash and succeeded by clipping off one-fifth of a second and bringing the record down to 5.5-5-5.

The cosmopolitan character of the California student body was illustrated in the appearance in the two-mile run of Ching, a full-blooded Chinese, and in the half-mile run of Carpenter, a full-blooded negro. Both were outclassed by their white brothers. Following are the events and winners:

Five hundred yards, Berkeley won by twenty-five yards; time 4m. 45.1-5-5.
Hundred-yard dash—Abadie of San Francisco won by one and one-half yards; time 10-1-5-5.

Quarter-mile run—Howard of Oakland won by four yards; time 3:34.
Two-mile run—Tibbitts of Campbell, Santa Clara county, won by seventy-five yards; time 10m. 4-5-5-5.

The 220-yard hurdle: Hannigan of San Francisco won by 15 yards; time 9-25-5-5.

The 220-yard dash: Dewing of Berkeley won by three yards; time 0:24-2-5-5.
Half-mile run: Clifford of San Francisco won by 20 yards; time 2:02-5-5-5.
Hammer throw: Hartline of Illinois won, distance 125 feet.

Shot put: Shudiger of Fresno won;
distance 39ft. 6in.

Pole vault: Wilcox of Portland won;
height 11ft. 1in.

Running high jump: Cooley of Oakland won; height 5ft. 9in.

Running broad jump: Chaplin of Berkeley and Clark of Michigan tied for first place; distance 21ft. 4in.

Fifty-yard dash for the university record: Abadie of San Francisco; time 6-5-5-5 sec. U. C. record, 5-4-5 sec.

Bennett's Races.
WASHINGTON, April 8.—Six and a half furlongs: Turpin won, Dr. Saylor second, Meza third; time 1:18.
Half-mile: Sententious won, Eleta second, Ora McKinney third; time 0:52-1-5-5.

Six and a half furlongs: Ahumada won, Tugal Bey second, Embarrasa-ment third; time 1:25-1-5-5.

Seven furlongs: Slidell won, Daly second, Annie Grace third; time 1:31-2-5-5.

Seven furlongs, selling: Lockett won;
Vigilance second, Ziri third; time
1:32-2-5-5.

One and one hundred yards, handicap: Ron Mot won, Lord Hodge second, Ricard third; time 1:34-2-5-5.

Montgomery Park Race.
MEMPHIS (Tenn.) April 8.—Six furlongs: The Forum won, Lynch second, Beautiful and Best third; time 1:16.
Four furlongs: Miss Fleischmann won, Sweet Gretchen second, Pure Favor third; time 0:56.

Six furlongs: Fazy Kane won, Semper Vivam second, The Don third; time 1:14.

Four and a half furlongs, selling:
My Rondale won, Mont Polon second,
Dr. Loder third; time 0:57.
About two miles, telephane second,
Montane won, Allegiance second,
Memorial third; time 4-49.

Six furlongs, selling: Little Jack Hornor won, Ruburban Queen second,
Miss Hume third; time 1:17.

Ball Club Holds Grounds.
SEATTLE (Wash.) April 8.—Pending a final hearing in the matter, Superior Judge Tallman has ordered the Seattle Electric Light Company to refrain from disturbing D. E. Dugdale, Jr. in the possession of the baseball park on East Jefferson street. It is believed that the order will continue in force throughout the season.

Quinn Puts Dennis Out.
FRENCH, April 8.—Armory Hall was crowded tonight to see the fight between Jack Dennis of the Olympic Club, San Francisco, and Jim Quinn of Maine. Those who were present had the satisfaction of seeing fast encounter, in which both pugilists fought clean. The end came in the eleventh round, when Quinn put Dennis down and out with a right smash to the jaw.

Seattle's Dog Show.
SEATTLE (Wash.) April 8.—The Seattle Kennel Club's annual dog show today, it is rumored, will also desert.

Butte Miners Beaten.
SAN JOSE, April 8.—The Butte Miners were defeated in their first practice game today by the crack Santa Clara nine by the score of 4 to 2.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hurley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Lucas Will Move.
PORTLAND (Or.) April 8.—W. H.
Lucas, president of the Pacific National Baseball League, stated tonight that he would move his headquarters from Spokane to Tacoma, in order to be nearer the center of his field of work.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

Stovall of Seattle Jumps.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—It is
stated Stovall of Seattle has jumped
to the San Francisco Nationals. Hur-
ley, it is rumored, will also desert.

SEE TOMORROW'S
F. B. Silverwood,
311 SOUTH SPRING STREET,
Los Angeles, Cal.

Why Don't
You buy a carpet and then build your house to fit it?

Any sense?
Then why buy a ready-made suit and jam yourself into it?

It isn't as if Silverwood tailoring cost too much.

What your clothes asks is usually enough.

All goods marked in every day figures.

The new tie-shirt-hosiery—
the new Easter dress—expecting to buy—they're here if they're new.

F. B. Silverwood,
311 SOUTH SPRING STREET,
Los Angeles, Cal.

F. B. Silverwood,
311 SOUTH SPRING STREET,
Los Angeles, Cal.

F. B. Silverwood,
311 SOUTH SPRING

THE WILD DUCK.

"SON" BURNS UP BELLAIRS.

Author of Sensational Book on Alleged Crook.

"As it is in the Philippines" Comed Warm Sit.

Write in Phoenix and Says He'll See for Label - Is He Bullwinkle?

Special Correspondence of THE TIMES

PHOENIX (Ariz.) April 7.—For three months Capt. Edgar Gerald Bellairs has been a resident of Wickburg, Ariz., and has been with mining men and country men for diversion. He is a social and a good fellow in a social sense, and proved himself an Englishman by the facility with which he adapted himself to the American game of poker.

He is estimated by fact that he has won several thousands of dollars in the game. He has been a correspondent of the Associated Press in Cuba, and has been a correspondent of the Associated Press in China. But his most recent work was a book entitled "As it is in the Philippines," which damned the administration of Governor Taft, comparing his conduct with that of Governor Wood.

Chickering Pianos

body ever had or have a better Piano than the Chickering. This instrument is an instrument built to make music with the sole idea of making the instrument the seven stands. The Chickering instrument that has been received in all one hundred and twenty-nine medals and high awards. The Chickering is the best.

Agents for the Piano.

Southern California Music Co.

232-334 South Broadway.

w Neckw

FOR

EASTER

particularly beautiful in leaves uncommon

Thomson & Bern

Men's Shop

OUTH BROAD

lease Our with per feet, and new

Shutz Optical

OUTH SPRING STREET

E

Clean and Press

Call For and Delivery

Antitumorium

ash Old. But, Brothers

We Do Later Work

Center

New

Beeman

Henderson

RENOVATOR

CLEANERS AND DRESSERS

Call For and Delivery

Antitumorium

ash Old. But, Brothers

We Do Later Work

en who

re in society

careful to have in keeping with and appropriate ation.

or full dress occa

the stoniest or eas

ely, either play

ditioned with diam

ionable and in p

also have a full in fine gold.

ntgomery

Jewelry and

S. S. Jewellers

and Spring St.

LOS ANGELES

Everything in Boy's Clothing?

Well!

No boy can be displeased; no mother can be disappointed in the quality, the prices or the varieties in this Easter display.

Indefatigable

HARRIS & FRANK, Prop.

217 to 219 N. Spring st.

U C

J. P. DELANY,

THE OPTICIAN

You can have as good eyesight as anybody. I can overcome all defects. Quickly, scientifically, economically.

THOROUGH EXAMINATION FREE.

309 South Spring Street.

FOUR POSSES AFTER DESPERADO MCKINNEY.

OUTLAW AND MURDERER LIKELY NEAR RANDSBURG.

Fugitive With Bloody Record Will be Killed on Sight by the Picked Officers Who are Trying to Round Him Up. Reinforcements to Head Him Off.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

BAKERSFIELD, April 8.—A posse led by Deputy Sheriff Burt Tibbets left here tonight to aid in the capture of James McKinney, the outlaw, now headed across Southern California.

The posse will take another trail to intercept the fugitive should he succeed in eluding those already in the field. Sheriff Collins and his posse left the train at Cramer, near Randsburg, today, and the Arizona officers passed through Manvel, north of the Nevada line, at noon today, three days behind the desperado, who was seen there Sunday, going north.

There are now four posses in the field from as many counties—one from Mojave county, Ariz.; one headed by Sheriff Baileys of San Bernardino, one from Kern and Tulare counties jointly, headed by Sheriff Collins of Visalia, and the one that left here this evening.

The officers sent out are all picked men, who expect to kill the murderer on sight if they meet him. The local officers at Randsburg have been notified to be on the lookout for him, and the same order has been sent to every part of the county and the southern portion of the State. As soon as his location is more definitely ascertained other posses may be sent to head him off wherever he may go.

BOYS WRECK TROLLEY CAR.

City Marshal Packard late this afternoon discovered the identity of eight young boys, who last night deliberately built a dirt embankment on the Ninth-street electric-car tracks, from which the wreck of a car resulted. Fortunately, there were no passengers, but the motorman and the conductor received a severe shaking-up, and the car was so damaged that it could not be in service today. The culprits are all members of well-known families, and they claim that they were playing. The company has not decided whether to prosecute the lads or not.

FOR NATIVE SONS.

The County Supervisors this afternoon appropriated $500 for the entertainment of the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons, which will meet here the last week in this month. The City Trustees have given $250; the local parlor of Native Sons, $500; the Board of Trade, $100, and the citizens have thus far subscribed $1,250. It is the intention to raise $3,500.

The Mean Advantage.

"There is not a man of you," howled the walking delegate, "who cannot with ease recall some act on the part of your employer that he would not have thought of committing upon one not in his employ. Do I not speak the truth?"

A tall man over in the corner of the room was noticed softly and silently weeping.

"What?" exclaimed the walking delegate, "perhaps I have been too ruthless in my remarks and have stirred some heart too deeply. But will the brother who sits in the corner, and who is now wiping his eyes with his coat sleeve, tell us what is the trouble?"

"Yes," said the man, rising. "I shall check my emotions long enough to tell the truth; I was struck with the wonderful, photographic truthfulness of what the speaker said about employers doing things to employees they would never presume to do to others. In my own case—"

"Attention!" howled the walking delegate. "In my own case," resumed the man, with a tremor in his voice, "I was called into the office a few days ago and my employer told me without even a blush of shame—"

"Ah!" said the walking delegate, sympathetically, yet triumphantly. "I was told that my salary would be advanced 10 per cent. Now would my employer have even thought of doing that to any but an employee?"

But the meeting had adjourned.—(Baltimore American.)

Little Byron and the Bee.

Little Byron, 2 years old, came in from his play crying and holding his foot.

"What is the matter with my boy?" asked his mother.

"I hurt me on a bee," replied Byron. (Little Chronicle.)

J. W. ROBINSON CO.

BOSTON DRY GOODS STORE,
239 South Broadway, Opp. City Hall, Los Angeles.

The Linen Department is making an attractive showing these days, for the prevailing styles call for a free use of linens for shirt waists and similar purposes, so that, in addition to the usual showing of Household Linens, you will find a fine line of Mercerized Crash and Twine Cloth for shirt waists and several lines of Shirt Waist Linens.

Linens

New Shirt Waist Linens
Splendid Table Linens

70-inch Cream Table Linen, extra heavy quality and a nice assortment of new patterns, $1 the yard.
72-inch Bleached Satin Damask, an extra fine quality, $1 the yard.
Laundry Bags of fancy Turkish Toweling, fast colors, 75c each.
36-inch White Shirt Waist Linen in the new basket weave, 85c and $1 the yard.

Warehouse samples of Satin Table Damask in 2 1/2 and 3-yd. lengths, $2.25, $2.50, $2.75 and $3 each.

Linen Etamine for wash waists and summer suits, 75c, 85c and $1 the yard.

Butchers' Linen in a variety of qualities and colors, from 50c to 75c the yard.

Crystal Candelabra for Easter

We have opened a new lot of these which we have brought out for the Easter trade—the largest assortment of this line we have ever shown. If you are interested, look them over.

H. F. VOLLNER & CO., Cor. Broadway and Third

KODAKS

And photo copying. We make a specialty of developing, printing and enlarging. All orders given prompt attention. Send for catalogue.

Howland & Co.

213 S. Broadway Tel. N. 311

Drawing Papers, Measuring Tapes, Architects' and Engineers' Supplies.

ADOLF FRESZ,

226 South Spring Street.

H. JEVNE

AN ATTRACTIVE EASTER DISPLAY

All sorts of amusing toys; the prettiest and daintiest favors for luncheons. Eggs of every size and description—some with animals and some without. Most interesting to children are the Panorama Eggs—such wonders as they do reveal. The bunnies and the rabbits and the chicks won't be here long. They are being carried away pretty fast—and by Easter morning they will all be gone. Come and see them now.

Smoke Jevne's Fine Cigars.

208-210 S. Spring St.—Wilcox Building.

C. M. STAUB SHOE CO.

255 SOUTH BROADWAY.

Eclipse $3.50 SHOE

BURNS THE SHOE MAN

240 South Spring Street

Best Clothing

At ordinary prices is our policy.

M. LAVENTHAL, 10-14-16 N. SPRING STREET.

Notice to Owners.

We have a corps of experienced men always ready to make any kind of Plumbing Repairs. We will cheerfully furnish estimates on new work, and invite you to inspect our show rooms.

100 E. Second St. Phone Main 1116.

LOHMAN BROS

Wetherby-Kayser Shoe Company,

Shops at 215 South Broadway, Los Angeles, and 59 East Colorado Street, Pasadena.

Women's (ideal patent) kid 2-button oxfords; dull mat kid top, W.K. high leather heel, $6.00 a pair.

Mtredith tie-ideal kid, 3-eyelet, broad ribbon laces, hand-turned soles, W.K. heel—$4.00 a pair.

Men's Shoes; "Po-tay-toe" toe-oxfords or boots; vic kid and patent leather—the very latest; $5.00 to $7.00.

Men's Coroneo Kid (patent) oxfords; straight and "Po-tay-toe" lasts; very smart—for Spring and Easter, only $3.50.

Children's Shoes

Easter footwear for children of every age—from babyhood up—in extensive variety, at just the right prices.

YOUR FRIENDS BUY HERE.

St. Cecelia $2.50 for Women, Majestic $2.50 for Women, Utz & Dunn's Shoes for Children.

456 S. Broadway.

The Excelsior Laundry

111 W. Second St., 526 S. Spring St., 424 S. Los Angeles St.

Phone Main 367 and our collector will call.

COULTER DRY GOODS COMPANY,

317-323 SOUTH BROADWAY, LOS ANGELES, CAL.

Coulter Dry Goods Co.

Thursday, April 9th.

—Three more days, then Easter. Buy gloves, handkerchiefs, ribbons, and ready-made garments today. Don't wait.

New Gloves

Told you several times about the new Suede Lisle Gloves for Spring and Easter. Some of them have the satchet pocket attachment. 50c and up to $1.25 a pair.

Kid gloves—all the kinds that the fashions call for, and priced most attractively. The ones at $1.00 are exceptionally good, while the Alexandre brand at $1.50, are commonly sold at $1.75—some places for $2.00.

Handkerchiefs.

Several sorts of 25c handkerchiefs go on sale this morning at 20c, or 3 for 50c. Among them are sheer white lawn, lace trimmed or scalloped and embroidered; also fancy colored edges, hem-stitched.

New Ribbons.

Special showing of Satin Taffetas, 4 to 5 inches wide, particularly suited to millinery purposes—full line of all the new colors—25c, 35c and up to 50c a yard.

Novelty Ribbons in the new Dresden effects; beautiful colorings; 4 to 5 inches wide; suitable for sashes, neck ribbons and hat trimmings, 40c and up to $1.00 a yard.

Jewelry, Etc.

Latest ideas in Lorgnette Chains—bead, coral, gun metal, jet, turquoise, jeweled, amber, pearl—from 50c by easy stages up to $3.50 each.

Golf hat pins in souvenir leather (cases, set of two; sterling silver, $1.50 a set.

Gun Metal Wrist Purses; also Netsuke bags—the latest novelty, assorted styles, most attractively priced.

New Skirts

Beautiful dress skirts for Spring and Easter are here in prodigious profusion; handsomer styles than in any former season.

Black Etamine Skirts, from $2.00 to $30.00—and with handsome silk drops, as high as $40.00; many of them effectively trimmed with ribbon and stitching. Cream Etamine Skirts, from $7.50 to $20.00; and one particularly handsome skirt of black Crepe de Chine, magnificently trimmed with antique lace and bands, panel and shirred front—at $35.00.

Light weight Cheviot and Etamine Skirts, in blue, brown or gray; strikingly pretty styles, from $7.50 up.

For the Men

Special showing of white Shirts for Easter—the Cluett-Peabody brand—only $1.50, and fully equal to many shirts sold in the smaller stores at $2.00.

Neckwear, newest ideas; white ties; full dress bows and strings; also white or black four-in-hands, bows and the new midget strings.

COULTER DRY GOODS COMPANY,

317-323 SOUTH BROADWAY, LOS ANGELES, CAL.

Heaters

Coal, Wood, Gas and Oil

CASS & SMURR STOVE CO, 314-316 S. Spring St.

Doctors Agree.

Doctors have searched the catalogue for some practical exercise to combat the sedentary tendency of the age.

Bicycling

Is the only practical one they have found. It forces pleasant exercise upon us in the sunshine and fresh air. It is also an economic means of transportation—saves money or car fare.

The Pierce Bicycles

are the only ones that have the Cushion Frame and Spring Forks, and you will find them for sale and on exhibition at the

E. R. Risden Cycle House, 452 S. Broadway

Store Open Evenings. Wheels Sold on Easy Payments.

PLASMON COCOA

55 Per Cent. Plasmon.

Is refreshing, Health and nourishment in every cup. Good at all hours, Light and perfectly digestible.

Ask your Grocer or Druggist for it. In Cases, 10c a tin.

Plasmon is the nutrition of pure, sweet milk, in the form of a soluble cream-colored powder. It can be added to other foods to increase their nutritive qualities.

Plasmon Co. of m rica

307 Sacramento St., San Francisco, Cal.

(Literature mailed free for the asking.)

New Fruits

Are making their appearance now. Strawberries, luscious Brandywines today. Lequats, Peppinos, Pineapples, etc.

Tel. M. 550.

LUDWIG & MATTHEWS, Mott Market.

A. B. Chase Pianos

Bartlett Music Co. 235 S. Broadway.

EMPIRE Laundry

Surprisingly fine work on Dress Shirts

149 S. Main, Tel. 148

MINING—

[illegible]

San Bernardino, Riverside and Orange Counties.

(NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.)

SAN BERNARDINO.

MAGNANIMOUS JUDGE.
SAN BERNARDINO, April 8.—Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe has instructed his father, and attorney, R. E. Bledsoe, Esq., to discontinue the appeal taken to the Supreme Court of the $2500 which was drawn by Judge J. L. Campbell during the months he served on the bench in Department Two of the Superior Court, while the contest for the office between Bennett, Bledsoe and Campbell was being waged. Bledsoe won out, but he magnanimously says that he did not earn the money and therefore does not care for it.

FAIR WOMEN WORKERS.
Mrs. James H. Boyd, president of the Executive Committee of the Women's Auxiliary to the street fair, has named the following chairmen of committees: Queen's Throne, Mrs. R. E. Gill; Reception, Mrs. E. D. Roberts; Children's Party, Mrs. A. K. Johnson; Press Committee, Mrs. F. A. Butterworth; Baby Show, Mrs. A. A. Butterworth; Children's Coach Parade, Mrs. L. Horowitz; Floral Parade, Mrs. Henry Goodell; Mrs. J. B. Gill; Mrs. A. A. Butterworth, former president of the committee, and Mrs. S. S. Draper will serve as secretary.

FOR STREET FAIR.
The City Trustees last night granted everything asked for to help the street fair next month. The committee was granted the use of the City Pavilion for fair week. While the fair is in progress, during certain hours of the day, the principal streets in the business section of the city will be closed, subject to the directors of the committee. A bargain was struck with the electric-light company to hang 2500 additional arc lights in the business district and keep them going during the fair, for $75.

MINOR MENTION.
The recently-mentioned Southeast Electrical Company has purchased of H. E. Harris a one-story brick business block on the west side of D street, between Third and Court, having a frontage of twenty feet. The consideration being $3500, or $175 a front foot. The company has elected as president, M. G. Gray; secretary, C. E. Gray; and general manager, H. S. Roach of Riverside.

Charles Geer, a Santa Fe mailing clerk, sustained a fractured left leg last evening by a kick from the horse of a mail wagon from the Santa Fe Station. The driver, Mr. A. M. Curtis, secretary, C. E. Gray, of Riverside; general manager, H. S. Roach of Riverside.

The divorce case of Mrs. Jessie Magaw against William J. Magaw, a school teacher at Yucaipa, is being tried in Judge Bledsoe's court, behind closed doors. Mrs. Magaw charges her husband with extreme cruelty. Magaw, in a cross-complaint, charges his wife with infidelity, a charge she flatly denies.

The recently-mentioned Southeast Electrical Company has purchased of H. E. Harris a one-story brick business block on the west side of D street, between Third and Court, having a frontage of twenty feet. The consideration being $3500, or $175 a front foot. The company has elected as president, M. G. Gray; secretary, C. E. Gray; and general manager, H. S. Roach of Riverside.

REDLANDS.
SUDDEN "BUSINESS CHANGE."
REDLANDS, April 8.—Among the many recent business changes was one

WOMAN'S AWFUL DROP DOWN A DEEP WELL.
MRS. WARD OF SESPE PLUNGED HEADLONG EIGHTY FEET.

Struck Board Curbing and Landed Unconscious in Water but May Recover. Husband's Hard Task of Rescue—Oxnard's Third Setback.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
VENTURA, April 8.—A terrible and peculiar accident occurred on the Sespe in this county, on the ranch of Al Ward, in which Mrs. Ward met with a mishap which may cost her life. Mrs. Ward was drawing a pump from her well for repairs. Mrs. Ward was helping him get the unwieldy affair from the eighty-foot hole, and was steady in the pump by holding a rope attached to it. She slipped and was suddenly jerked into the well by the rope which she held, and plunged headlong down the full eighty feet and into five feet of water at the bottom. She was bruised and stunned by the terrible fall, and struck violently against the board curbing several times in her swift descent.

She showed no sign of life to her horror-stricken husband above, and hastened to get into the well to render her assistance. Hand under hand he slipped down the rope. When he reached the unfortunate woman she was unconscious. He fastened the rope about her and lifted her clear of the water, where he secured the rope. Then he hurried from the well so as to get his wife to the surface, as he knew he must act quickly, for he would not have time to climb the long rope by a strenuous effort, which would have been impossible under ordinary circumstances. His task was difficult, as he was thoroughly worn out. But he succeeded in drawing his wife up. Then he worked with her until consciousness returned, when he went for a physician. Mrs. Ward is terribly bruised about the head and body, but the doctor thinks she may recover from the effects of her fearful fall.

OXNARD'S SETBACK.
The third attempt to incorporate the town of Oxnard met with a setback yesterday before the Board of Supervisors. This was a great disappointment to the people generally of the town, as they were confident the effort would meet with success. While the scheme was not beaten entirely, it was crippled by postponement, and while it may yet become a fact, the promoters are disheartened and many of them are ready to give up. The factory, and two large land-owners—Mrs. Arnette Hill and Johannes Borchard—were the protestants this time not pleasing to several local firms. It had to do with Shaw & Co., composed of W. A. and J. M. Shaw, engaged in oil and carriage painting. They were rustlers from the word "go." They used lots of printer's ink, and did a rushing business, and they lived pretty high. Without the slightest intimation that they contemplated any such action, these men picked up their things yesterday, took their families and departed for Oregon, leaving creditors behind. Chief among those having unsettled accounts are the Cooper Furniture Company and Christie Grocery Company, which firms are giving chase. Many other concerns are said to have been caught.

IN BRIEF.
Subscriptions to the McKinley memorial fund continue to pour in, and the committee is trying to have all subscribers pay on or before Saturday, in order that the statue may be secured by the time the President arrives.

McKinley Camp, No. 25, Sons of Veterans, is taking an active part in the preparation for the President's reception.

Word has been received that Mrs. Eleanor Pierpont Courtney, wife of York Courtney, formerly resident of Redlands, died at her home in Portland, Or.

After deducting all incidentals and the amount paid the lecturer, the Christian Endeavor Society and Young Men's League of the First Congregational Church, realized over $100 from the address of Miss Ellen Stone, the ransomed missionary.

Today A. K. Smiley donated to the Board of Trade four large specimens of the Java pomelo, which are said to be the largest specimens ever exhibited here. They measure 22 1/2 inches in circumference, and weigh an average of 2 1/2 pounds each.

To enjoy a vacation, Rev. Will A. Knight, pastor of the New Street Methodist Church, Los Angeles, has taken up quarters here for a season. He is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Mrs. Stephen M. White, widow of the late United States Senator, accompanied by her family, has taken quarters on Nordin street. Mrs. White rendered fine vocal selections last Sunday at the Sacred Heart Church, and otherwise assisted the choir.

"If you want a thing well done, do it yourself," is an old-time motto, but the latest is "Try The Times" when it comes to advertising. Telephone your wants to Red 4-25, and our Redlands agency will take your ad, and send it to the main office.

FULLERTON.
NEWS BRIEF.
FULLERTON, April 8.—A meeting of the Orange County Medical Society last night Dr. William Freeman of Fullerton was elected president; Dr. F. E. Wilson, vice-president; Dr. Gordon, secretary; Dr. McCallister, treasurer; Dr. Dryer, delegate to State Medical Society; Dr. Gordon, alternate.

W. B. Wakelee, book-keeper at Brea Canon oil wells, was called to Brea today, being succeeded by Dr. H. Roastman.

Mrs. Elmer R. Ford has been ill two weeks. E. T. Woodruff has gone to Salt Lake City on business.

Gloves are being strung on the poles today for the city's new twenty electric street lamps.

Mrs. Alex. Henderson received a letter today announcing the death of her father, aged 87, at his home in Guilford, Ontario, Canada.

Philippine Islands, China, Japan, Hawaiian Islands and other foreign countries, and is shipped daily to all parts of the western portion of the United States. The demand equals the supply and the output is increased from month to month. The company keeps a large warehouse full of the condensed cream constantly, believing it is best to keep stock on hand. The plant is situated in a building of sixty to ninety days before putting into the market. There are invested in the plant tens of thousands of dollars and many improvements are under way and are contemplated, one of which is installing over $25,000 worth of copper kettles in which to steam-boil and handle the milk. Two more new forty-horse-power boilers are to be installed at once. Crude oil is used as fuel, the company finding it much more economical than coal, being a saving of at least 50 per cent. The company yesterday shipped two carloads of the cream north. The creamery also manufactures a high-grade chocolate.

NEWS BRIEFS.
C. L. McComber of Los Angeles is putting down a ten-inch well on his Park place, and will install a pumping plant to irrigate his forty acres of alfalfa.

George Wilcox, superintendent of the Pacific Creamery, writes from the mountains that he is much improved in health, but will not return here for several weeks.

RIVERSIDE.
TOURIST DROPS DEAD.
RIVERSIDE, April 8.—Obadiah of Indiana was suddenly stricken with apoplexy this afternoon, and died a moment, without uttering a word. Mr. and Mrs. Borchard, who were on a winter in Riverside, and were on the eve of departure for their eastern home, arrangements for the trip having been completed. Mr. Borchard stepped into Cox's grocery store to say good-by to his wife, and he had spoken but a few words when he suddenly fell, and life was extinct before medical aid reached him. The coroner pronounced the case apoplexy, and no inquest will be held.

FRANCHISE FOR HUNTINGTON.
The City Trustees yesterday afternoon passed the ordinance asked for by H. E. Huntington, granting him a franchise for a double and single-track electric road over certain streets of the city. The franchise will be offered for sale as soon as the advertising and preliminary legal steps can be taken. It is promised that construction work will be commenced as soon as the franchise is finally awarded. The city is now looking to the building of Riverside and vicinity, with universal approval. The good roads and electric road promises to prove the real thing.

PASSING PICKUPS.
Incorporation papers of the California Nitrate Company have been filed. The company is capitalized at $500,000, of which $250,000 has been subscribed by these directors: R. B. Sheldon, T. D. Hewitt, William Hinkle, R. J. Burton, H. R. Henderson.

Riverside Temple, No. 12, has elected Mrs. Nettie Waite and Mrs. Ida Russell as representatives to the meeting of the Grand Temple of Hathorne Sisters, which convenes at San Francisco May 19. Mrs. Etta Cundiff and Mrs. Francis Ward were elected alternates.

Put your money in The Times "Liners" and your reward will be quick and sure. Telephone your wants to Red 4-25, and our Redlands agency will take your ad, and send it to the main office.

CORONA.
SALT LAKE ROAD PROMISED.
CORONA, April 8.—It is learned on good authority that the Salt Lake road will be extended to Corona. The large citrus shipping business from this colony has been a factor in the attention of the railroad officials, who realize the incalculable value in saving of time on fruit consignments for the East. Corona is only about ten miles from the main line of the Salt Lake road, where it crosses the Santa Ana River, near Riverside.

MARINE NEWS.
From San Pedro, Port for Los Angeles. (REPORTED DAILY FOR THE TIMES.)
ARRIVED—WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8.
Schooner Newberry, Capt. Corning, 11 hours from San Francisco, via way ports, steamer Santa Cruz, April 12.
Schooner Wm. B. Brown, Capt. Asse, 11 days from Douglas Bay.

Schooner Santa Barbara, Capt. Bellows, 12 days from Seattle.
Schooner A. West, Capt. Grunz, 12 days from Gray's Harbor.
Schooner William Olsen, Capt. Rorvik, 11 days from Port Gamble.
Schooner Capt. Peasley, 11 days from Gray's Harbor.

ARRIVED—WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8.
Steamer Newberry, Capt. Corning, for San Francisco, via way ports, steamer Santa Cruz, April 12.
Schooner Wm. B. Brown, Capt. Asse, 11 days from Douglas Bay.

FROM SAN PEDRO, PORT FOR LOS ANGELES.
Schooner Santa Barbara, Capt. Bellows, 12 days from Seattle.
Schooner A. West, Capt. Grunz, 12 days from Gray's Harbor.
Schooner William Olsen, Capt. Rorvik, 11 days from Port Gamble.
Schooner Capt. Peasley, 11 days from Gray's Harbor.

FROM SAN PEDRO, PORT FOR LOS ANGELES.
Schooner Santa Barbara, Capt. Bellows, 12 days from Seattle.
Schooner A. West, Capt. Grunz, 12 days from Gray's Harbor.
Schooner William Olsen, Capt. Rorvik, 11 days from Port Gamble.
Schooner Capt. Peasley, 11 days from Gray's Harbor.

FROM SAN PEDRO, PORT FOR LOS ANGELES.
Schooner Santa Barbara, Capt. Bellows, 12 days from Seattle.
Schooner A. West, Capt. Grunz, 12 days from Gray's Harbor.
Schooner William Olsen, Capt. Rorvik, 11 days from Port Gamble.
Schooner Capt. Peasley, 11 days from Gray's Harbor.

GENUINE RUSSIAN KUMYSS IN A GLASS

DEAN'S SODA TOUCHES THE SPOT

Dean's Easter Opening.

Generally when you read of Easter openings you think of new spring hats and other articles intended to adorn the fair sex. Dean's Easter opening is different, although it will delight the ladies, for we have prepared a display that no other drug store in Los Angeles can begin to equal in beauty, variety and extent. Come and judge for yourself.

EASTER NOVELTIES

From the littlest might of a downy chick at 2 1/2 cents to the proudest feathered rascal $2.00 the assortment is unique in its completeness. REAL little stuffed ducklings, chicks (he only ones in town), at 50c each, rabbits, cranes, owls and other novelties, fancy eggs with beautifully arranged "peep shows." In fact, there is no new novelty not represented here, and when you come to ask the prices you'll find them the lowest of any in town, prices that will insure the sale of every article this week.

Easter Perfumes

Special display and price reduction for Easter offers exceptional inducements to supply your wants at Dean's. See our center Spring Street window.

PALMER'S, WRIGHT'S, RIEGER'S, COLGATE'S, LAUTIER'S, LUNDBORG'S AND PINAUD'S at fifty cents an ounce.

Extra special for Easter week—A. L. Peys's genuine Paris Eau de Parfums, always sold at 75c for 6-oz. bottle, now 49c.

Easter Bon Bons

We have a full assortment of this famous candy from the factory by fast express. In addition to the above mentioned line we carry an assortment of all the best candies of Los Angeles which we sell at popular prices. Always ready to please. This is a new department and we want you to forget that Dean sells candy.

PRESCRIPTIONS. There's good reason for the preference which the public has for Dean's service in this line. None but best quality drugs, the most expert pharmacists to compound them, and fair prices—and no percentage to physicians.

DEAN'S SODA FOUNTAIN. By long odds the most popular in town. Seems that Dean knows just how to please each individual taste. Every standard soda and phosphate, all the fancy mixtures and some unusually delicious drinks that are original served only as Dean knows how.

FACE PREPARATIONS. Warm days and with them tan and freckles. Dean's face cream for the complexion—25c. Dean's face cream will remove freckles—but not the absolutely harmless; takes off tan, too; per jar, 98c and up.

Dean's stock in this line has always been considered the finest on the Coast. But then compete with the pressed imitation, so common. Dean is closing out his line. There are many of the choicest of them in purses, chatelaines, belts, cigar cases, music rollers, and numerous other articles, still to be had. But must be prompt, if you would share in these unusual bargains.

Swell Leather Articles.

In the line of fine leather Dean has no competitor. You will find qualities and styles here that are to be duplicated only in the most exclusive metropolitan shops. Prices are extremely moderate considering the superiority of the goods.

Wrist Bags, 50c to $17
Purses, 50c to $15
Grips, $3.50 and up

Chatelaines 50c to $25
Boston Bags, $1.25 to $10
Suit Cases, Special Value at $3

Genuine Mexican Hand-Carved Leather

At Exactly Half Prices.

DEAN'S DRUG STORE

SECOND AND SPRING STS. PHONE MAIN 569.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletchman, and is guaranteed by him. It is the only medicine that has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, imitations and "just-as-good" are not experiments, and endanger the health of children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA?
Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher In Use For Over 30 Years.

TOOTH SATISFACTION.
LIKE NATURE'S OWN.
A dentist may be way up on theory but if his practice is small, he is still a theorist. During my 30 years' experience I have certainly had the practice, meeting day after day difficult cases; you're safe if you come here. My plates restore FACIAL EXPRESSION—my fillings never wear out, my porcelain crowns never broken down teeth.

"I treat sensitive teeth and sensitive nerves alike."
DR. CICERO STEVENS, 217 1/2 S. Spring St.

OXYDONOR Cures WITH OUT DRUGS. Cures: Rheumatism, Gout, Paralysis, Asthma, Bronchitis, Stomach and Bowel Disorders, Kidney and Liver Complaints. It is an infallible remedy for fevers, colds, grippe and all acute diseases, arresting them in their progress and curing in one to a few hours. OXYDONOR does not apply to any particular disease but to every subsidence of the vital process.

You have nothing to swallow, nothing to endure, no drug pills, no doctor bills to pay.
OXYDONOR lasts a lifetime and will serve a family. A child can manage one. Send for booklet and testimonials.

Inductive Appliance Co., 724 S. Hill St., Los Angeles, Cal.

PRINTERS AND PUBLISHERS.
For sale at less than foundry prices—Absolutely new 10-point type of this face in lots of fifty pounds or over, with sorts all complete, cast to order. Also the same size, once used, completely equipped with sorts, at a substantial reduction. Apply at Times-Mirror Printing and Binding House, 110 North Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal.

Blair's Shoe Store 21 SOUTH BROADWAY.
REGAL 21 SOUTH BROADWAY.

ASIAN BOUTIQUE, 112 W. 4th St., Catalogue Free.
Carload of Elegant Dining Tables just received. See our Line. Lowest cash prices.
STREET, 112 W. 4th St., 551-563 & 571-573 ST.

John J. Hall.
HELENA (Mont.) April 8.—John J. Hall is dead at Jefferson, aged 72. He was a pioneer in three States, Minnesota, Washington and Montana. He came to Montana in 1862, and was one of the miners in Alder Gulch, the scene of the first gold discoveries in Montana.

HELENA (Mont.) April 8.—John J. Hall is dead at Jefferson, aged 72. He was a pioneer in three States, Minnesota, Washington and Montana. He came to Montana in 1862, and was one of the miners in Alder Gulch, the scene of the first gold discoveries in Montana.

Los Angeles County

(NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.)

Los Angeles County

ADENA BOON TO BE BROAD-GAUGE TRACKED.
C. ELECTRIC WILL MAKE CHANGE AFTER FIESTA.

Broken for Car Barns—Small Passes up Like Topsy—Contract High School—Linda Vista and High Schools.

Office of The Times. South Raymond avenue, April 8.—The electric railway in this city will be doing a very busy business during the coming week. The new car barns to be built at the corner of Broadway and Broadway, a little south of the city, will be ready to receive the cars that will be brought in from the city. The cars will be brought in from the city. The cars will be brought in from the city.

There are no orders about the "broad gauge" tracks, said Mr. J. B. Smith, last night. But we think they will be forthcoming. The cars will be brought in from the city. The cars will be brought in from the city. The cars will be brought in from the city.

Many people believe that the electric railway will be a great success. The cars will be brought in from the city. The cars will be brought in from the city. The cars will be brought in from the city.

upon his code of ethics. Phil is having a statue of him where he has hidden it. After the statue is hidden, the statue will be hidden. The statue will be hidden. The statue will be hidden.

SCHOOL CONTRACT.
The Los Angeles Board of Education has authorized the purchase of a new school building. The school building will be built. The school building will be built.

OXYDONOR Cures WITHOUT DRUGS. Cures: Rheumatism, Gout, Paralysis, Asthma, Bronchitis, Stomach and Bowel Disorders, Kidney and Liver Complaints. It is an infallible remedy for fevers, colds, grippe and all acute diseases, arresting them in their progress and curing in one to a few hours. OXYDONOR does not apply to any particular disease but to every subsidence of the vital process.

DEERING HEAD Sample set up for your roller bearing. 42 inch roller bearing. 42 inch roller bearing. 42 inch roller bearing. 42 inch roller bearing.

THE AUTO REINMAN & PRATT. 21 SOUTH BROADWAY.

H. E. MAXSON, Manager, 318 Bradbury Bldg., Los Angeles, Cal.

...BEST...
...made...
...guaranteed...

Many citizens was presented, the Trustees last night granted to the Pacific Telephone Company a franchise. The City Trustees granted permission to the Pacific Wireless Telephone and Telegraph Company to erect a seventy-foot mast on a lot owned by the Box of quinine pills in the top of drawer.

Food and Come Up Where You Belong

in drawer.

Reliable Goods. Popular Prices.
N. B. BLACKSTONE CO.,
Telephone Main 359 DRY GOODS Spring and Third Sts.

Handsome Easter Waists
New Parasols

Novelties especially designed for Easter-Sunday wear. Novelty, Neckwear, Ribbons, Parasols and ready-to-wear of every kind are shown in most bewildering varieties.

Call your particular attention to a new lot of PARASOLS and FANCY SILK and WASH WAISTS.

FANCY WAISTS
Peau de Cigne Waists in light blue, pink and white, made with two groups of fine tucks down the back, front and sleeves; front yoke effect of solid tucks and white fagoting, large pouch sleeve, fancy stock, at $6.00.
Peau de Cigne Waists with tucked back, front and sleeves, solid tucks, yoke, fancy stock, large, full puff sleeve, entire waist beautifully embroidered in the new grape designs; a perfect beauty, at $7.50.
Fancy Waists of Pongees, Crepes and Taffetas in all colors and styles on up to $14.00.

NEW PARASOLS
Allover Tucked Taffeta with fancy chiffon ruche, coaching handles, at $8.00.
Polka Dotted Taffeta, white with black and black with white, embroidered dots and hemstitching, at $7.50.
Black Gloria silk with deep ruffle at $1.50.
Black Gloria silk sun umbrellas for beach use, 34 and 36 inch, at $3.00.

President Roosevelt
Sec. Cortelyou
Admiral Dewey
Clarence Eddy
Reginald De Koven
And Others
Use and Indorse
"The Cecilia."

THE PERFECT PIANO PLAYER
as did the late PRESIDENT McKINLEY, whose memory is cherished by every loyal American citizen.

Cecilian Selections—Now Ready:
From Mr. Pickwick—"Crystal Slipper," "A Country Girl," "Prince of Pilsen," "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," "The Reginald De Koven's operas, as played by this great artist with the aid of a Cecilia."
Geo. J. Birkel Co.
Sole and Cecilia Dealers
197 S. Spring St.—Los Angeles.

In The New Order
of things, the success of a manufacture depends upon its purity. This is why

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate
Is such a thoroughly reliable health food. It is a combination of purity, flavor and wholesomeness. Warranted strictly pure Cocoa and high grade sugar. Keeps its freshness and strength in cans hermetically sealed.

Our A B C Trading Book will make the little one happy. Mailed free. Address G. Ghirardelli Co., San Francisco, Cal.

Our credit system is just the sort of a plan so many people have wished for, yet its advantages are even greater than you could expect.
104 S. Spring St.

THE BATTLE IS FIERCER.

Espee Behind Clark in Big Franchise Fight.

Huntington Will Not Be Bluffed Out of His Projects.

He Issues "Defi" by Resigning Southern Pacific Vice-Presidency.

The battle between the steam and electric railway interests grows fiercer. Senator Clark's announcement that he is backing the so-called Garland 3-cent franchise has only served to intensify the strain. It emphasizes the purpose of the combination to bluff Huntington out of his interurban plan. It is known that Senator Clark is cooperating with the Southern Pacific. He is seconding Harrison.

Mr. Huntington's answer is a strong "defi." He will not make back tracks. He will press on with every one of his trolley enterprises. He will widen the breach.

It is Mr. Huntington's purpose to resign as vice-president and director of the Southern Pacific. Indeed, it is said his resignation is already on the way to Mr. Harrison.

It is now war to the bitter end.

It was accepted as a fact yesterday that Senator William A. Clark of Montana represents the Southern Pacific in the application for the celebrated "blanket" franchise for an eighty-two mile street railway system in Los Angeles.

Any doubt that might have existed is dispelled by the discovery of a midnight meeting Tuesday of a quartette of men who cement the deal between the Southern Pacific and Mr. Garland, who acts as agent for the franchise applicants. This meeting was held at the office of Attorney Clarence Miller in the Bryson Block, and those present were W. F. Herrin, general counsel for the Southern Pacific; Walter F. X. Parker, political worker for that company; William M. Garland and Attorney Clarence Miller. The conference lasted from 11 o'clock until after midnight.

At this meeting occurred the acquiescence of the child that seems destined to wreck the dream of the transportation family, and which already has caused Henry E. Huntington to sever his official relation with the Southern Pacific Company. Mr. Huntington has been for a long time director and vice-president of the Southern Pacific, but the attack of the corporation upon his interests makes it impossible for him to continue. If he has not already resigned he will do so. The Southern Pacific headquarters. It marks an episode of national importance in railroading—the passing of the great founder of the corporation, from the board. It is an event of dramatic interest to all who know what the Southern Pacific has hitherto been to the Espee.

NOT A SURPRISE.
Senator Clark's announcement, which came by telegraph from New York, was not a matter of surprise to Mr. Huntington. He has stated that he believed the Southern Pacific had behind the "blanket" franchise application, and the connection of the president of the Southern Pacific with the movement is taken by the electric-railway magnate simply as a confirmation of his belief.

"The telegram of Senator Clark," said Mr. Huntington last night, "only confirms what I already knew to be true—that the Southern Pacific had entered into a scheme to injure me. But I don't think they can. I say I don't think they can, and I say I don't think they can. I say they can't do it," he reiterated.

HERRIN IS MUM.
W. F. Herrin declined to discuss the franchise application, either to affirm or deny the statement that the Southern Pacific is interested in the movement.

"They are bound to mix the Southern Pacific in the matter," said Mr. Herrin, "despite the most strenuous denials."

Among the members of the City Council the opinion is general that the Southern Pacific is the real backer of the application. Senator Clark's lambasting of the Southern Pacific in the past, said Mr. Nofziger, "it requires no stretch of the imagination to arrive at the conclusion that he is acting for that company in the present instance. When it was impossible for the Southern Pacific a number of years ago to buy the railroad line from Santa Ana to Newport, Mr. Clark purchased it and the line was transferred almost at once to the Southern Pacific. He acted in a similar capacity some time ago in the purchase of a line in Nevada that was desired by the Southern Pacific, and in view of the close relations that now obtain between him and President Harrison of the Southern Pacific it is not idle to believe that he is working for that company's interest in this case."

one line to reach territory through avenues close to those of its competitors. It is customary to grant such permission. Competition is acceptable. But it is not desirable to make it possible for one company to "shut out" another.

As to a bona fide street fare, there would not be any objection, but I believe no such concession will be granted by any street-car line in Los Angeles for some time to come. Reports from other cities where a 3-cent fare is said to be operative show that this is but a limited and not a general proposition. It is held by the example of a city where the low-fare idea is carried out to perfection, but investigation proves that the privilege is extended only at certain hours of the day—for workmen going to and from work.

I think the Council should move slowly in this matter, said Councilman Kern. "Give the people an opportunity to study the question from all sides. There is no hurry. If the applicants are ready to come in and wait a short time, if their intentions are ulterior, the people will benefit through delay. There is no reason why summary action should be taken in opposition to Mr. Huntington's interests."

There seems to be no question," continued Mr. Kern, "that this is the opening of a battle between steam and electricity, with the Southern Pacific possibly the victor. But the fact that the Southern Pacific is backing the franchise, which Mr. Clark is backing, is a serious matter. The Old-timers who remember Mr. Clark's opposition to the New-timers who remember Mr. Clark's support of the Southern Pacific clearly see the handwriting on the wall."

Councilman Skilling also favors delay. He said that the franchise application undoubtedly is made by a combination of interests, including the Southern Pacific, the principal steam roads, the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, and Santa Fe, their intention being to put a stop to the operations of Mr. Huntington. He said that the franchise, should they obtain the franchise, they probably would have three years to comply with its terms, and in that time they could make a vast amount of money. If the franchise is to be offered for sale, their terms should be so strict in bidding that it would be a costly thing to do.

It was accepted as a fact yesterday that Senator William A. Clark of Montana represents the Southern Pacific in the application for the celebrated "blanket" franchise for an eighty-two mile street railway system in Los Angeles.

Any doubt that might have existed is dispelled by the discovery of a midnight meeting Tuesday of a quartette of men who cement the deal between the Southern Pacific and Mr. Garland, who acts as agent for the franchise applicants. This meeting was held at the office of Attorney Clarence Miller in the Bryson Block, and those present were W. F. Herrin, general counsel for the Southern Pacific; Walter F. X. Parker, political worker for that company; William M. Garland and Attorney Clarence Miller. The conference lasted from 11 o'clock until after midnight.

At this meeting occurred the acquiescence of the child that seems destined to wreck the dream of the transportation family, and which already has caused Henry E. Huntington to sever his official relation with the Southern Pacific Company. Mr. Huntington has been for a long time director and vice-president of the Southern Pacific, but the attack of the corporation upon his interests makes it impossible for him to continue. If he has not already resigned he will do so. The Southern Pacific headquarters. It marks an episode of national importance in railroading—the passing of the great founder of the corporation, from the board. It is an event of dramatic interest to all who know what the Southern Pacific has hitherto been to the Espee.

NOT A SURPRISE.
Senator Clark's announcement, which came by telegraph from New York, was not a matter of surprise to Mr. Huntington. He has stated that he believed the Southern Pacific had behind the "blanket" franchise application, and the connection of the president of the Southern Pacific with the movement is taken by the electric-railway magnate simply as a confirmation of his belief.

"The telegram of Senator Clark," said Mr. Huntington last night, "only confirms what I already knew to be true—that the Southern Pacific had entered into a scheme to injure me. But I don't think they can. I say I don't think they can, and I say I don't think they can. I say they can't do it," he reiterated.

HERRIN IS MUM.
W. F. Herrin declined to discuss the franchise application, either to affirm or deny the statement that the Southern Pacific is interested in the movement.

"They are bound to mix the Southern Pacific in the matter," said Mr. Herrin, "despite the most strenuous denials."

Among the members of the City Council the opinion is general that the Southern Pacific is the real backer of the application. Senator Clark's lambasting of the Southern Pacific in the past, said Mr. Nofziger, "it requires no stretch of the imagination to arrive at the conclusion that he is acting for that company in the present instance. When it was impossible for the Southern Pacific a number of years ago to buy the railroad line from Santa Ana to Newport, Mr. Clark purchased it and the line was transferred almost at once to the Southern Pacific. He acted in a similar capacity some time ago in the purchase of a line in Nevada that was desired by the Southern Pacific, and in view of the close relations that now obtain between him and President Harrison of the Southern Pacific it is not idle to believe that he is working for that company's interest in this case."

Mr. Huntington's answer is a strong "defi." He will not make back tracks. He will press on with every one of his trolley enterprises. He will widen the breach.

It is Mr. Huntington's purpose to resign as vice-president and director of the Southern Pacific. Indeed, it is said his resignation is already on the way to Mr. Harrison.

It is now war to the bitter end.

It was accepted as a fact yesterday that Senator William A. Clark of Montana represents the Southern Pacific in the application for the celebrated "blanket" franchise for an eighty-two mile street railway system in Los Angeles.

Any doubt that might have existed is dispelled by the discovery of a midnight meeting Tuesday of a quartette of men who cement the deal between the Southern Pacific and Mr. Garland, who acts as agent for the franchise applicants. This meeting was held at the office of Attorney Clarence Miller in the Bryson Block, and those present were W. F. Herrin, general counsel for the Southern Pacific; Walter F. X. Parker, political worker for that company; William M. Garland and Attorney Clarence Miller. The conference lasted from 11 o'clock until after midnight.

WIFE LASHES HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Nellie Robinson Wields Cruel Blacksnake.

Gives it to William Plenty on a Crooked Street.

Sensational Horsewhipping at the Lankershim Building By Angry Woman.

Persons who were near Third and Spring streets yesterday afternoon saw something that was like old times. It was a scene that would make the Police Gazette turn green with envy. A woman horsewhipped a man. Of course everybody called the man a brute and pitied the woman.

Mrs. Nellie Robinson, a handsome, handsomely-dressed and prepossessing blonde, and her husband, Wm. Robinson, general manager of the Pacific Fueling Service, with offices in the Lankershim Building, were the actors. They were standing at the Lankershim building near the entrance on Third street.

They were deep in conversation, and Mrs. Robinson was expostulating. She shook her well-poised blonde head and raised her voice. She was laying down the law as though she were his back parlor with her mother there to back her up.

Robinson said little and seemed unhappy. It appeared as though he wanted the woman to lower her voice and to attract less attention.

But Mrs. Robinson evidently does not take fright easily; she does not draw herself in and shut up like a shellfish. Instead, her temper seems to thrive on opposition.

A good many persons looked back as they passed, but Mrs. Robinson heeded them not. She flashed a contemptuous look at her husband and tapped her foot dangerously. Robinson persisted in trying to be mollifying and refused to heed the danger signal.

Suddenly the woman, her blue eyes blazing, drew a blacksnake whip from somewhere, and slashed a blow at her husband's face. Robinson was startled, but he did not flinch. He merely raised his arm in time to parry the diabolical weapon.

In Australia Mrs. Robinson was a maid and used to lose a constellation of hair mugs, full of flaming anger, as though it were a bouquet. Since then Mrs. Robinson has grown in stature, and has well developed biceps.

There was a hurrying of feet to the scene, and Spring street began to pour its human stream a little faster than ordinary, around the corners. Robinson tried to get the lash and did in the neck. The avenging creature—she had probably practiced a variety of strokes in front of the glass before making her debut in public—struck the stonks roll of leather back gracefully and with no more precision than before, but with better luck, caught her husband on a spot that made him wince.

A man's patience can't endure everything. The husband must exercise his authority and correct his wife. Hence, he made a dive at her, which was full of valiant purpose. But Mrs. Nellie gave this sudden valor an abrupt check. She gathered her skirts a little more tightly, and made the blacksnake switch through the air. It fell with a report, and sent up a little cloud of dust from Robinson's nicely-fitting trousers. That he paused for a second with a hovering sort of air, as though she were looking for an opening.

"During this time she kept exclaiming, 'Oh, you rogue! You rogue! You!' and her voice was choked by intense emotion.

Robinson, as remarked, Mrs. Nellie thought the way was open. She made a dash at it. Then she had an inspiration to direct the lash toward her husband's face. She seemed to promise. Robinson started to back away and abandoned his first impulse which was to encircle his wife's wrists in a firm grip, and tell her that to be a good girl, or it will be a bad one. He was "shocked" at seeing such an exhibition, and bystanders were waiting for a better sight. The "disgraceful" but highly entertaining scene.

Mrs. Nellie must have thought she was a good man opening. Although it didn't last for a minute, the whip played at a lively rate, and the wife made her husband a better cleaner, no doubt, than if he ever got before from her hands. With the natural instinct of self-preservation, he held both arms up over his face. All the while, though, he kept a very busy eye on the lookout for a chance to jump in.

It was when a woman begins to swing a blacksnake, which is a very ferocious and tricky thing, off the stage, she must look out that the blacksnake doesn't come back. Also, she must not forget that there are pins in a woman's hair, and that a woman's belt must be felt over so often, which is a quick threat, or it will be a right. In the midst of her violent exertion, Mrs. Nellie divined the horrible fact that her back hair was falling down; that her back safety pin was showing under the belt, and that her hat—a descending plume clouding her vision told her—was trying to skate down over her nose.

This is too much for any woman, even if she is horsewhipping her husband. Mrs. Nellie must have a grain at all of these points at once, at the same time holding the lash!

Robinson found safety in his own hands. He grabbed the whip and ran into the Lankershim building. Mrs. Nellie, more furious than ever at being baffled, ran into the entrance after him, with her golden locks streaming out behind and the halpsins falling and about to fall, and almost grabbed his coat tails as he entered the elevator.

But just as she reached out her hand, she found herself in the air. She was gazed up at the fast-ascending car like a hungry lioness. In the confusion she dropped her purse also. Robinson found safety in his own hands. He grabbed the whip and ran into the Lankershim building. Mrs. Nellie, more furious than ever at being baffled, ran into the entrance after him, with her golden locks streaming out behind and the halpsins falling and about to fall, and almost grabbed his coat tails as he entered the elevator.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Interpretive Recital.

Miss Coleman will bring her series of recitals interpretive of the symphony concertos to a close this afternoon at 8 o'clock at the Los Angeles Music Center. The program will comprise a talk on Mendelssohn, and in connection with his work, The Nations, a brief description of the music of different countries, a sketch of Mendelssohn and an analysis of the Scotch Symphony. Wilfrid M. Klamroth, baritone, will sing "Wings of Song," Salska, Fruhlingslied; Lieblingsspielchen (Mendelssohn).

Operatic Evening.
The seats are selling fast for Mrs. Johnstone-Hibson's operatic recital at the Los Angeles Music Center, April 12. Acts will be given from "Carmen," "Faust," "The Barber of Seville," "Cavalleria Rusticana," with Mrs. Hibson as Santuzza, Mr. Haas Zinck as Turiddu, and Mr. Brown as Alio; from "Fidelio," with Mrs. Hibson as Marguerite, Mr. Brown as Mephisto and Mrs. Scarborough as Siebel; from "Pagliacci," "Il Trovatore," and "La Cio-cia." A chorus of seventy, large orchestra and brilliant scenic effects will add to the beauty of the production.

THE HOLY STAIRS
The Steps Down Which the Savior Was Led to the Crucifixion—They Are Still Preserved in Rome.

[Chicago Record-Herald.] Across the piazza is the Scala Santa, or the Holy Stairs, one of the most interesting objects in Rome. The building in which the stairway stands was erected after the earthquake of 844 had destroyed the church in which it was placed, when all was brought from Jerusalem in 328 by the Empress Helena, the mother of Constantine.

The stairway consists of twenty-eight marble steps, which belonged to the house of Pontius Pilate. They were ascended and descended by the Savior in going to and returning from the hall of judgment. As he came down after his trial and mock coronation with the crown of thorns the blood from his bleeding brow fell upon some of them, staining them with an indelible crimson.

No one is allowed to ascend these steps except upon his knees, repeating an Ave, or paternoster, on each step, and they are constantly crowded with men, women and children, the most religious of whom kiss the steps as they crawl up. They have become so much worn by the knees of the devotees that coverings of wood have been placed upon them, in which are slits through which the marble can be seen. An indulgence for 100 years is granted by the church to the believers who ascend on their knees.

There are four other stairways, parallel with the sacred one, by which the descent is made. Persons who will not crawl up ascend these side staircases. All of our party walked up except one gentleman, a Presbyterian minister, who was the president of a theological college in Pennsylvania. He said it would not hurt him to crawl up, so he went up on his knees in a very devout manner.

It "timed" several of the pilgrims and found that they averaged fifteen minutes in ascending the stairway, and it was reserved for an American priest to "break the record." He was brought by an Italian monk and introduced to the priests in charge. His friend, the theologian, who was the president of a theological college in Pennsylvania. He said it would not hurt him to crawl up, so he went up on his knees in a very devout manner.

After the rest of the way and succeeded in making the ascent in four minutes. An old priest then crept up the stairs and carefully wiped off the steps with a napkin. Each person as he came down gave the priests in charge some money. The amount received here during the past 1500 years must be considerable. Estimating the number of pilgrims at 100 per day and the average contribution at 1 cent (20 cents), the amount received would aggregate $200,000.

That the effect produced on the minds of visitors varies greatly is shown by the following extracts from published accounts: "Reason may condemn, but feeling cannot resist the claim to reverence in the spectacle of the stair," presented by the Scala Santa. Frederick Bremer says: "The ascending of the Scala Santa on the knees is too convenient a mode of obtaining the forgiveness of sins, and at the same time a hindrance upon the only true way."

Augustus C. Hare says: "The effect of the staircase, with the figures ascending on their knees in the dim light and the dark vaulted ceiling, covered with faded frescoes, is exceedingly picturesque." Dickens says: "The slight ridiculousness in the absurd incidents inseparable from the stair is more than compensated by the solemnity of the scene."

At the top of the steps is a chapel called the Santa Sanctorum, which was formerly the private chapel of the popes. In it is a painting of Christ, representing him as a child of 12. It is said to have been painted by St. Luke, who, by the way, was a physician and not an artist. Not content with attributing the picture to St. Luke, the priests in charge call the painting "Acheiropoieton" (made without hands) and say that after St. Luke had drawn the outlines the colors were filled in and the portrait finished by invisible angels.

Spending a Million.
Dr. Naphthali of St. Louis preached a sermon to the Methodist Church, conference at Marshall, Mo., in which he referred to the widely-tingling ideas people have regarding what constitutes real happiness. They put more on the one hand, he said, to become too sensual. As illustrating the case of people of too sensual tastes, he told a story of two Irishmen, one of whom asked the other what he would do with $1,000,000 if he had it.

"Well," said "Mike," "if I had a million dollars I'd buy me a job as a Pullman porter, and I'd have a soft berth all me life. What would you do, Pat?"

"Begorrah," replied "Pat," "I'd think I'd buy me 'Tim Finnegan's saloon, 'wid lookin' 'lasses all around, and every time I'd took a drink, I'd see myself drinkin' twenty-four times." [Kansas City Journal.]

TO BLOCKADE STREET CARS.

Plot of Handful of Former Trolley Operators.

Ingenious Scheme to Tie Up All Los Angeles Traffic.

"Uncle John" Bryson Shakes His Mane—Strike on His Building.

Having lost their own jobs—been discharged for alleged conduct adverse to the interest of their employers—the thirty or forty members of the recently formed street car men's union have entered into a plot to stampede the motormen and conductors of the Los Angeles Railway Company into a sudden strike.

Two meetings at which plans were discussed, have been held this week, one on Monday night and the other on Tuesday night, at the homes of two of these discharged unionists.

Something of what happened at these meetings leaked out yesterday, though those concerned in the plot had been sworn to secrecy. The attempt to bring off the strike was to be made the latter part of this week or the early part of next week. Arrangements had been partially made with about a dozen motormen—supposed secret sympathizers of the Los Angeles Railway Company—to start the strike by deserting their cars at First and Spring, Seventh and Broadway, Temple and Main, and other central street corners. A few cars thus stopped and deserted at these corners would within a few minutes start a blockade that, unless promptly broken, would tie up practically the entire car system in the city within an hour. Deserting motormen would, leaving their cars, carry their controllers—handies off with them to a nearby rendezvous, then return for missionary work among the motormen and conductors of other cars that would be held up by the blockade. The stampede was to be attempted between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening.

This, as stated, is the plot as it was agreed upon at the Monday night meeting. But scarcely had the plot been matured when it was reported to the company officials by several of the motormen who had been approached and solicited by the trolley-makers—of the Los Angeles Railway Company to start the strike by deserting their cars at First and Spring, Seventh and Broadway, Temple and Main, and other central street corners. A few cars thus stopped and deserted at these corners would within a few minutes start a blockade that, unless promptly broken, would tie up practically the entire car system in the city within an hour. Deserting motormen would, leaving their cars, carry their controllers—handies off with them to a nearby rendezvous, then return for missionary work among the motormen and conductors of other cars that would be held up by the blockade. The stampede was to be attempted between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening.

Inquiry among a number of the discharged unionists yesterday elicited the more or less sure reply that there was "nothing doing," though there was little difficulty in getting them to admit that the Monday and Tuesday night meetings had been held.

A little observation made yesterday showed that about one-half of the cars running in the city are manned by three men—two men—motormen and conductor and an "extra." Just what this means must be guessed by the reader. It is thought that these extra men have been picked and stationed by the car officials to act in the company interest in case of a sudden strike.

"UNCLE JOHN" NOT.
STRIKE ON BRYSON BLOCK.
"If I had $2,000,000 cash in bank to invest in the erection of buildings, I would not touch a cent of it until labor unionism in Los Angeles had been wiped out," statement by John Bryson, capitalist.

The worthless, trouble-breeding individual known as "walking delegate" yesterday succeeded in stopping all labor on the remodeling of the Bryson Block at Second and Spring streets, and $100,000 worth of improvement now stands suspended.

The remodeling of the Bryson Block, in charge of John Redman, of the Western Electrical Company, a non-union house, had eight non-union electricians doing wiring work in the building. The local Electrical Workers' Union discovered this, and immediately the walking-delegate post got busy. A couple of these trouble-making job-lovers entered the Bryson Block yesterday morning and started in to make a strike. Eight union carpenters and four union plumbers, the latter employed by Blum & Jay, were at work on the building. They did not receive very enthusiastically the walking delegates' demand that they pick up their tools and walk out, to show their "sympathy" with the electricians.

But the union club was brought down on the heads of the carpenters and the plumbers, and the result was that at 10 o'clock the Bryson Block was a scene of confusion. The contractors, who were in under their contracts to complete the remodeling within a certain time—they quit, every now and then to assure herself that her legs were properly disposed.

At the top of the steps is a chapel called the Santa Sanctorum, which was formerly the private chapel of the popes. In it is a painting of Christ, representing him as a child of 12. It is said to have been painted by St. Luke, who, by the way, was a physician and not an artist. Not content with attributing the picture to St. Luke, the priests in charge call the painting "Acheiropoieton" (made without hands) and say that after St. Luke had drawn the outlines the colors were filled in and the portrait finished by invisible angels.

Spending a Million.
Dr. Naphthali of St. Louis preached a sermon to the Methodist Church, conference at Marshall, Mo., in which he referred to the widely-tingling ideas people have regarding what constitutes real happiness. They put more on the one hand, he said, to become too sensual. As illustrating the case of people of too sensual tastes, he told a story of two Irishmen, one of whom asked the other what he would do with $1,000,000 if he had it.

"Well," said "Mike," "if I had a million dollars I'd buy me a job as a Pullman porter, and I'd have a soft berth all me life. What would you do, Pat?"

"Begorrah," replied "Pat," "I'd think I'd buy me 'Tim Finnegan's saloon, 'wid lookin' 'lasses all around, and every time I'd took a drink, I'd see myself drinkin' twenty-four times." [Kansas City Journal.]

Little Pat's Answer.
Ex-Senator Joseph L. Barbour of Connecticut, in commenting upon the case with which Irishmen become Americans, referring to this country, told the following story at a Waldorf-Astoria dinner the other evening:

There was a little Irish boy named "Pat," who came to the United States with his family. One morning his teacher in the public school asked him:

"Who was the first man, 'Pat'?"

"George Washington," was the prompt reply.

"Oh, no," said the teacher. "George Washington was the Father of His Country, but Adam was the first man."

"Well," responded "Pat," "I didn't know ya was speakin' of furriers." [New York Mail and Express.]

If it is said the German Emperor intends to soon visit Paris

NEWS AND BUSINESS

Cu Stock Sales.

General Manager Muir of the Los Angeles Railway Company to ask him raise the Buena Vista-street tracks three inches. Another committee was ing, trimming. Headquarters for rub-tires. Parrott Carriage Mfg. Co., Tenth Main.

HER pianos. Williamson's, 327 N. Spring.

5. Spring St. HATTER.

3. Spring Sl. greater than y

Reliable Goods. Popular Prices.
B. BLACKSTONE CO.,
Telephone 339
DRY GOODS Spring and Third Sts.

Handsome Easter Waists New Parasols

These waists bring with it many fascinating novelties for fastidious women. Especially designed for Easter-Sunday wear. Every kind of every kind are shown in most bewildering varieties. We call your particular attention to a new lot of PARASOLS and UMBRELLAS and FANCY SILK and WASH WAISTS.

FANCY WAISTS
Peau de Cigne Waists in light blue, pink and white, made with two groups of fine tucks down the back, front and sleeves, solid tuck, large puffed sleeves and white fagoting, large puffed sleeves, large buttons, at..... $10.00
Peau de Cigne Waists with tucks down the back and sleeves, solid tuck, large puffed sleeves, large buttons, at..... $7.50
Fancy Waists of Pongees, Crepes and Taffetas in all colors and styles on up to..... $14.00

NEW PARASOLS
All-over Tucked Taffeta with fancy chiffon ruche, coaching handles, at..... $8.00
Polka Dotted taffeta, white with black and black with white, embroidered dots and hemstitching, at..... $7.50
Black Gloria silk with deep ruffles, at..... $1.50
Black Gloria silk sun umbrellas for beach use, 24 and 36 inch, from $1.00 to..... $3.00

President Roosevelt
Sec. Cortelyou
Admiral Dewey
Clarence Eddy
Reginald DeKoven
And Others
Use and Indorse
"The Ceciliaan."

THE PERFECT PIANO PLAYER
as did the late PRESIDENT MCKINLEY, whose memory is cherished by every loyal American citizen.
Cecilian Selections—Now Ready:
From Mr. Pickwick—"Crystal Slipper," "A Country Girl," "Prince of Pilsen," "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," and Reginald DeKoven's opera, as played by this great artist with the aid of a Ceciliaan.
See J. Birkel Co.
Steinway and Cecilian Dealer
347 S. Spring St.—Los Angeles.

In The New Order
of things, the success of a manufacture depends upon its purity. This is why

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

Is such a thoroughly reliable health food. It is a combination of purity, flavor and wholesomeness. Warranted strictly pure Cocoa and high grade sugar. Keeps its freshness and strength in cans hermetically sealed.

Our A B C Trading Book will make the little ones happy. Mailed free. Address D. Ghirardelli Co., San Francisco, Cal.

ent's
Our credit system is just the sort of a plan so many people have wished for, yet its advantages are even greater than you could expect.

THE BATTLE IS FIERCER.

Espee Behind Clark in Big Franchise Fight.

Huntington Will Not Be Bluffed Out of His Projects.

He Issues "Defi" by Resigning Southern Pacific Vice-Presidency.

The battle between the steam and electric railway interests grows fiercer. Senator Clark's announcement that he is backing the so-called Garland 3-cent franchise has only served to intensify the strain. It emphasizes the purpose of the combination to bluff Huntington out of his interurban plans. It is known that Senator Clark is cooperating with the Southern Pacific. He is seconding Harriman. Mr. Huntington's answer is a strong "defi." He will not make back tracks. He will press on with every one of his trolley enterprises. He will widen the breach. It is Mr. Huntington's purpose to resign as vice-president and director of the Southern Pacific; indeed, it is said his resignation is already on the way to Mr. Harriman.

It was accepted as a fact yesterday that Senator William A. Clark of Montana represents the Southern Pacific in the application for the celebrated "blanket" franchise for an eighty-two mile street railway system in Los Angeles. Any doubt that might have existed is dispelled by the discovery of a midnight meeting Tuesday of a quartet of men who met the board between the Southern Pacific and Mr. Clark, who acts as agent for the franchise applicants. This meeting was held at the office of Attorney Clarence Miller in the Biltmore Hotel and those present were W. F. Herrin, general counsel for the Southern Pacific; Walter F. X. Parker, political worker for that company; William M. Garland and Attorney Clarence Miller. The conference lasted from 11 o'clock until after midnight.

At this meeting occurred the announcement of the child that seems destined to wreck the peace of the transportation family, and which already has caused Henry E. Huntington to sever his official relation with the Southern Pacific Company. Mr. Huntington has been for a long time director and vice-president of the Southern Pacific, but the attack of the corporation upon his interests makes it impossible for him to continue. He has already resigned his position as president of the corporation of "Uncle Columbia," one of the great founders of the corporation, from the board. It is an event of dramatic interest to the people who know what the name of "Huntington" has hitherto been to the Espee.

NOT A SURPRISE.
Senator Clark's announcement, which came by telegraph from New York, was not a matter of surprise to Mr. Huntington. He has stated that he believed the Southern Pacific was behind the "blanket" franchise application, and his connection of the president of the Salt Lake road with the movement is taken by the electric-railway magnate simply as a confirmation of his belief.

"The telegram of Senator Clark," said Mr. Huntington last night, "only confirms what I already knew and that is that the Southern Pacific has entered into a scheme to injure me. But I don't think they can. I say I don't think they can, and I say that firmly, as they do when he makes a positive statement. There is not much to say about the matter," continued Mr. Huntington. "The only question is: Will the eighty-two miles of road be built if the applicants obtain the franchise? I don't fear the building of any road or that cars will be operated at a 3-cent fare. Why, it costs us more than 4 cents to transport each passenger. Any line would operate at a loss at 3 cents. Just an attempt to injure me, but they can't do it. I say they can't do it," he reiterated.

HERRIN IS MUM.
W. F. Herrin declined to discuss the franchise application, either to affirm or deny the statement that the Southern Pacific is interested in the movement. "They are bound to mix the Southern Pacific in the matter," said Mr. Herrin, "despite the most strenuous denial."

Among the members of the City Council the opinion is generally that the Southern Pacific is the real backer of the application. Senator Clark's lambasting of the Southern Pacific in the past, said Mr. Nozicker, "it requires no stretch of the imagination to arrive at the conclusion that he is acting for Baltimore and Cork. He is not Santa Ana to Newport. Mr. Clark purchased it and the line was transferred almost at once to the Southern Pacific. He acted in a similar manner some time ago in the purchase of a line in Nevada that was desired by the Southern Pacific, and in view of the close relations that now obtain between him and President Harriman of the Southern Pacific it is not idle to believe that he is working for that company's interest in this case."

"It has been the policy of the Council to decline to offer for sale any street-railway franchise that closely paralleled or encroached existing lines. Only when it is necessary for one line to reach territory through avenues close to those of its competitors is it customary to grant such permission. Competition is acceptable at all times, but it is not desirable to make it possible for one company to shut out another. As to a bona fide 3-cent fare, there would not be any opposition, but I believe no such concession will be granted. Any street-car line in Los Angeles for some time to come. Reports from other cities where a 3-cent fare is said to be operative show that this is but a limited and not a general privilege. Detroit is held up as an example of a city where the low-fare idea is carried out to perfection, but investigation proves that the privilege is extended only at certain hours of the day—for workmen going to and from work.

There seems to be no question," continued Mr. Kern, "that this is the opening of a battle between steam and electric. The Southern Pacific and possibly the Salt Lake and Santa Fe on one side, and Mr. Huntington's interurban lines on the other. Old-time members of Mr. Clark's staff, who are now in the Southern Pacific, clearly see the handwriting on the wall."

Councilmen here also favor a deliberate action by the Council. "Expansion of interurban and local lines is responsible for a great part of the prosperity of Los Angeles," said Mr. "Cripple it and you cripple the entire city and its vicinity. This franchise application undoubtedly is made by a combination of the electric and steam roads, the Southern Pacific, Salt Lake and Santa Fe, their intention being to stop the growth of the city of Mr. Huntington by stopping the sale of bonds. Should they obtain the franchise, they probably would have three years to complete the line, and at that time they could work a vast amount of injury. If the franchise is to be offered for sale, their terms should be so strict to make any violation costly. They should be so hedged in with such stipulations as to operation of the proposed new lines as to protect all interests."

COUNCIL HOLDS THE KEY.
"The Council holds the key to the situation," said Councilman Farish. "Nine-tenths of the people I have met are opposed to any action that would stop the growth of the city. Mr. Huntington through 'freeze-out' legislation. It seems strange that Mr. Clark, if he has had any voice in the outside agent or that he should have waited until this time to announce his intention. He has been a member of the Southern Pacific since firmly established through the close relations that have been apparent for some days between Mr. Clark and Walter X. Parker, the political worker for that company. The 3-cent fare clause seems to have been inserted in the franchise as a means of stifling competition in bidding for the franchise. No one contemplates the adoption of that rate, and it is well known that the only interests that would not be besides the interests that represent would dare attempt to operate under such a franchise."

Councilman Sumner stands for the interests of Mr. Huntington, as against the tactics of the Southern Pacific. "The Southern Pacific is a corporation that is not to be trusted," he said. "I will not give it my support. I will not add to any movement that intended to destroy the value of Mr. Huntington's investments here."

DAVENPORT WANTS TO KNOW.
"I cannot express any opinion," said Councilman Davenport, "until I learn who are the associates of Senator Clark. If he is after the franchise as an individual, with a bona fide intention to carry out its terms, the matter stands in a more favorable light than if he is affiliated with the Southern Pacific and other steam roads for the purpose of stemming the progress of the electric-railway expansion. When an offer is made to make a reduction of 40 per cent in street-car fare, it is clear that the offer is made for the purpose of the business or that the applicants do not intend to 'make good.' The next few weeks will clear the atmosphere, and we can tell better just what is in the movement."

President Bowen of the Council said he was studying the matter, and that he would not give an opinion until he had heard from all sides. "One would naturally suppose," he said, "that Senator Clark is the backer of the project. If this is a 'blocking' game, I am against it."

Councilman Todd declined to say whether he was for or against the project. He is doing a thinking part.

WIFE LASHES HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Nellie Robinson Wields Cruel Blacksnake.

Gives it to William Plenty on a Crowded Street.

Sensational Horsewhipping at the Lankershim Building By Angry Woman.

Persons who were near Third and Spring streets yesterday afternoon saw something that was like old times. It was a woman who made the Police Gazette turn green with envy. A woman horsewhipped a man. Of course everybody called the man a brute and piled the woman.

Mrs. Nellie Robinson, a handsome, handsomely-dressed and personable blonde, and her husband, Wm. Robinson, general manager of the Pacific Postling Service, with offices in the Lankershim Building, were the actors. They were standing in front of the Lankershim Building near the entrance on Third street. They were deep in conversation, and Mrs. Robinson was expostulating. She shook her well-poised blonde head and raised her voice. She was laying down the law as though she were in her back parlor with her mother there to back her up.

Robinson said little and seemed unhappy. It appeared as though he stopped the woman to keep her voice and to attract less attention. But Mrs. Robinson evidently does not take fright easily; she does not draw herself in and shut up like a shellfish. Instead, her temper seems to thrive on opposition.

A good many persons looked back as they passed. Mrs. Robinson heeded them not. She flashed a contemptuous look at her husband and tapped her foot impatiently. She was looking for a way to try to mollify and refused to heed the danger signal. Suddenly the woman, her blue eyes blazing, drew a blacksnake whip from somewhere, and slashed a blow at her husband's face. Robinson was so completely unprepared for the onslaught, but raised his arm in time to parry the diabolical weapon.

In Australia Mrs. Robinson was a barmaid and met with a constable, a policeman, a full and foaming, as though it were a bouquet. Since then Mrs. Robinson has grown in stature, and has well developed biceps. There was a hurrying of feet to the scene, and Spring street began to pour its human stream a little faster than ordinarily, around the corners. Robinson tried to get the lash and did in the neck. The avenging creature—she had probably practiced a variety of strokes in front of the glass before she made her debut in public—was making mowing roll of leather back gracefully and with no more precision than before, but with better luck, caught her husband on a spot that made him wince.

A man's patience can't endure everything. The husband must assert his authority and correct his wife. Hence, he made a dash at her, which was full of vainglorious pride. But Mrs. Nellie gave this sudden valor an abrupt stop. She gathered her skirts a little and then she struck the blacksnake with a hoisting of her arm, as though she were looking for an opening. During this time she kept exclaiming, "You rascal! You rascal!" "You—!" and her voice was choked by intense emotion.

After her first blow, as remarked, Mrs. Nellie thought she saw an opening and made a dash at it. Then she had an inspiration to direct the lash toward another part, remodeling seemed to be promised. Robinson started to back away and abandoned his first impulse which was to encircle his wife's wrists in a firm yet tender grip, and he was a good girl. Nearly every one was "shocked" at seeing such an exhibition, and bystanders were waiting for her to make a second move. The "disgraceful" but highly entertaining scene.

Mrs. Nellie must have thought she saw a good many openings. Although it didn't last for a minute, the whip played at a lively rate, and the wife showed her husband a better cleaning, no doubt, than he ever got before from her hands. With the natural instinct of self-preservation, he held himself back, and almost got away, while, though, he kept a very busy eye on the lookout for a chance to jump in. When a woman begins to swing a blacksnake, which is a very ferocious and tricky thing, off the stage, she must look out that the blacksnake doesn't get away. Mrs. Nellie must not forget that there are pins in a woman's hair, and that a woman's belt must be felt over so often, which is a little frequent or it will not be right. In the midst of her violent exertion, Mrs. Nellie's hair was falling down, and her back hair was falling down, and she was trying to skate down over her nose.

TO BLOCKADE STREET CARS.

Plot of Handful of Former Trolley Operators.

Ingenious Scheme to Tie Up All Los Angeles Traffic.

"Uncle John" Bryson Shakes His Mane—Strike on His Building.

Having lost their own jobs—been discharged for alleged conduct adverse to the interest of their employers—thirty or forty members of the recently-formed street car men's union have entered into a plot to stampede the motor-men and conductors of the Los Angeles Railway Company into a sudden strike. Two meetings at which plans were discussed, have been held this week, one on Monday night and the other on Tuesday night, at the homes of two of these discharged unionists.

Something of what happened at these meetings leaked out yesterday, though those concerned in the plot had been sworn to secrecy. The attempt to bring off the strike was to be made the latter part of this week or the early part of next week. Arrangements had been partially made with about a dozen motor-men—supposed secret sympathizers of the Los Angeles Railway Company—to start the strike by deserting their cars at First and Spring, Seventh and Broadway, Temple and Main and other central street corners. A few cars thus stopped and deserted at these corners would within a few minutes start a blockade that, unless promptly broken, would tie up practically the entire car system in the city within an hour. Deserting motor-men would, leaving their cars, carry their controllers off with them to a nearby rendezvous, then return for missionary work among the motor-men who were conductors of other cars that would be held up by the blockade. The stampede was to be attempted between 6 and 8 o'clock in the evening.

This, as stated, is the plot as it was agreed upon at the Monday night meeting. But scarcely had the plot matured when it was reported to the company officials by several of the motor-men who had been approached and solicited by the trouble-makers. The fact of the betrayal in turn got abroad, with equal celerity, and so a secret meeting was held on Tuesday night, at the home of a discharged employee on Tenth street. Little has been learned of what occurred at this latter meeting, beyond the fact that it was a warm one. One of the discharged unionists made the accusation that the vow of secrecy was broken by one of the members. Angry denials followed, and finally the meeting broke up without much having been accomplished beyond the engendering of bitter feeling.

Inquiry among a number of the discharged unionists yesterday elicited the more or less early reply that there was "nothing doing," though there was little difficulty in getting these men to admit that the Monday and Tuesday night meetings had been held. A little observation made yesterday showed that about one-half of the cars running in the city are manned by three instead of two men—motor-man, conductor and an "extra." Just what this means must be guessed by the fact that the Monday and Tuesday night meetings have been picked and stationed by the car officials to act in the company's interest in case of a sudden strike.

"UNCLE JOHN" HOT.
STRIKE ON BRYSON BLOCK.
"If I had $2,000,000 cash in bank to invest in the erection of buildings, I would not touch a cent of it until labor unionism in Los Angeles had been wiped out," Statement by John Bryson, capitalist.
The worthless, trouble-breeding individual known as "walking delegate" yesterday succeeded in stopping all labor in the erection of buildings, the Bryson Block at Second and Spring streets, and $100,000 worth of improvement now stands suspended.

"The remodeling of the Bryson Block by in charge of Contractor John Redman. The Western Electrical Company, a non-union house, had eight non-union electricians doing wiring work in the building. The local Electrical Workers' Union discovered this, and immediately the walking-delegate went out busy. A couple of these trouble-making job-liners entered the Bryson Block yesterday morning and started in to make a strike. Eight non-union carpenters and four union plumbers, the latter employed by Blum & Jay, were at work on the building. They did not receive very enthusiastic replies to the walking delegate's demands that they pick up their tools and walk out, to show their 'sympathy' with the electricians' union."

But the union club was brought down on the heads of the carpenters and the plumbers, and the result was that at the noon hour they packed up their kits and, without a word of warning to the contractor—who is under contract to complete the remodeling within a certain time—they quit. "Now," says John Bryson, "unless the union fellows come back to work mighty quick, and without a scratch of concession or compromise from me or my contractor, I shall put all non-union men in the Bryson Block, and the men who think more of the command of a walking delegate than they do of their jobs and their families seek employment of somebody else than me."

TO BLOCKADE STREET CARS.

Plot of Handful of Former Trolley Operators.

Ingenious Scheme to Tie Up All Los Angeles Traffic.

"Uncle John" Bryson Shakes His Mane—Strike on His Building.

Having lost their own jobs—been discharged for alleged conduct adverse to the interest of their employers—thirty or forty members of the recently-formed street car men's union have entered into a plot to stampede the motor-men and conductors of the Los Angeles Railway Company into a sudden strike. Two meetings at which plans were discussed, have been held this week, one on Monday night and the other on Tuesday night, at the homes of two of these discharged unionists.

Something of what happened at these meetings leaked out yesterday, though those concerned in the plot had been sworn to secrecy. The attempt to bring off the strike was to be made the latter part of this week or the early part of next week. Arrangements had been partially made with about a dozen motor-men—supposed secret sympathizers of the Los Angeles Railway Company—to start the strike by deserting their cars at First and Spring, Seventh and Broadway, Temple and Main and other central street corners. A few cars thus stopped and deserted at these corners would within a few minutes start a blockade that, unless promptly broken, would tie up practically the entire car system in the city within an hour. Deserting motor-men would, leaving their cars, carry their controllers off with them to a nearby rendezvous, then return for missionary work among the motor-men who were conductors of other cars that would be held up by the blockade. The stampede was to be attempted between 6 and 8 o'clock in the evening.

This, as stated, is the plot as it was agreed upon at the Monday night meeting. But scarcely had the plot matured when it was reported to the company officials by several of the motor-men who had been approached and solicited by the trouble-makers. The fact of the betrayal in turn got abroad, with equal celerity, and so a secret meeting was held on Tuesday night, at the home of a discharged employee on Tenth street. Little has been learned of what occurred at this latter meeting, beyond the fact that it was a warm one. One of the discharged unionists made the accusation that the vow of secrecy was broken by one of the members. Angry denials followed, and finally the meeting broke up without much having been accomplished beyond the engendering of bitter feeling.

Inquiry among a number of the discharged unionists yesterday elicited the more or less early reply that there was "nothing doing," though there was little difficulty in getting these men to admit that the Monday and Tuesday night meetings had been held. A little observation made yesterday showed that about one-half of the cars running in the city are manned by three instead of two men—motor-man, conductor and an "extra." Just what this means must be guessed by the fact that the Monday and Tuesday night meetings have been picked and stationed by the car officials to act in the company's interest in case of a sudden strike.

"UNCLE JOHN" HOT.
STRIKE ON BRYSON BLOCK.
"If I had $2,000,000 cash in bank to invest in the erection of buildings, I would not touch a cent of it until labor unionism in Los Angeles had been wiped out," Statement by John Bryson, capitalist.
The worthless, trouble-breeding individual known as "walking delegate" yesterday succeeded in stopping all labor in the erection of buildings, the Bryson Block at Second and Spring streets, and $100,000 worth of improvement now stands suspended.

"The remodeling of the Bryson Block by in charge of Contractor John Redman. The Western Electrical Company, a non-union house, had eight non-union electricians doing wiring work in the building. The local Electrical Workers' Union discovered this, and immediately the walking-delegate went out busy. A couple of these trouble-making job-liners entered the Bryson Block yesterday morning and started in to make a strike. Eight non-union carpenters and four union plumbers, the latter employed by Blum & Jay, were at work on the building. They did not receive very enthusiastic replies to the walking delegate's demands that they pick up their tools and walk out, to show their 'sympathy' with the electricians' union."

But the union club was brought down on the heads of the carpenters and the plumbers, and the result was that at the noon hour they packed up their kits and, without a word of warning to the contractor—who is under contract to complete the remodeling within a certain time—they quit. "Now," says John Bryson, "unless the union fellows come back to work mighty quick, and without a scratch of concession or compromise from me or my contractor, I shall put all non-union men in the Bryson Block, and the men who think more of the command of a walking delegate than they do of their jobs and their families seek employment of somebody else than me."

TO BLOCKADE STREET CARS.

Plot of Handful of Former Trolley Operators.

Ingenious Scheme to Tie Up All Los Angeles Traffic.

"Uncle John" Bryson Shakes His Mane—Strike on His Building.

Having lost their own jobs—been discharged for alleged conduct adverse to the interest of their employers—thirty or forty members of the recently-formed street car men's union have entered into a plot to stampede the motor-men and conductors of the Los Angeles Railway Company into a sudden strike. Two meetings at which plans were discussed, have been held this week, one on Monday night and the other on Tuesday night, at the homes of two of these discharged unionists.

Something of what happened at these meetings leaked out yesterday, though those concerned in the plot had been sworn to secrecy. The attempt to bring off the strike was to be made the latter part of this week or the early part of next week. Arrangements had been partially made with about a dozen motor-men—supposed secret sympathizers of the Los Angeles Railway Company—to start the strike by deserting their cars at First and Spring, Seventh and Broadway, Temple and Main and other central street corners. A few cars thus stopped and deserted at these corners would within a few minutes start a blockade that, unless promptly broken, would tie up practically the entire car system in the city within an hour. Deserting motor-men would, leaving their cars, carry their controllers off with them to a nearby rendezvous, then return for missionary work among the motor-men who were conductors of other cars that would be held up by the blockade. The stampede was to be attempted between 6 and 8 o'clock in the evening.

This, as stated, is the plot as it was agreed upon at the Monday night meeting. But scarcely had the plot matured when it was reported to the company officials by several of the motor-men who had been approached and solicited by the trouble-makers. The fact of the betrayal in turn got abroad, with equal celerity, and so a secret meeting was held on Tuesday night, at the home of a discharged employee on Tenth street. Little has been learned of what occurred at this latter meeting, beyond the fact that it was a warm one. One of the discharged unionists made the accusation that the vow of secrecy was broken by one of the members. Angry denials followed, and finally the meeting broke up without much having been accomplished beyond the engendering of bitter feeling.

Inquiry among a number of the discharged unionists yesterday elicited the more or less early reply that there was "nothing doing," though there was little difficulty in getting these men to admit that the Monday and Tuesday night meetings had been held. A little observation made yesterday showed that about one-half of the cars running in the city are manned by three instead of two men—motor-man, conductor and an "extra." Just what this means must be guessed by the fact that the Monday and Tuesday night meetings have been picked and stationed by the car officials to act in the company's interest in case of a sudden strike.

"UNCLE JOHN" HOT.
STRIKE ON BRYSON BLOCK.
"If I had $2,000,000 cash in bank to invest in the erection of buildings, I would not touch a cent of it until labor unionism in Los Angeles had been wiped out," Statement by John Bryson, capitalist.
The worthless, trouble-breeding individual known as "walking delegate" yesterday succeeded in stopping all labor in the erection of buildings, the Bryson Block at Second and Spring streets, and $100,000 worth of improvement now stands suspended.

"The remodeling of the Bryson Block by in charge of Contractor John Redman. The Western Electrical Company, a non-union house, had eight non-union electricians doing wiring work in the building. The local Electrical Workers' Union discovered this, and immediately the walking-delegate went out busy. A couple of these trouble-making job-liners entered the Bryson Block yesterday morning and started in to make a strike. Eight non-union carpenters and four union plumbers, the latter employed by Blum & Jay, were at work on the building. They did not receive very enthusiastic replies to the walking delegate's demands that they pick up their tools and walk out, to show their 'sympathy' with the electricians' union."

But the union club was brought down on the heads of the carpenters and the plumbers, and the result was that at the noon hour they packed up their kits and, without a word of warning to the contractor—who is under contract to complete the remodeling within a certain time—they quit. "Now," says John Bryson, "unless the union fellows come back to work mighty quick, and without a scratch of concession or compromise from me or my contractor, I shall put all non-union men in the Bryson Block, and the men who think more of the command of a walking delegate than they do of their jobs and their families seek employment of somebody else than me."

THE PUBLIC SERVICE OFFICIAL DOINGS

SUMMARY OF THE DAY

Members of the Park Commission and invited city officials visited Griffith Park yesterday.

The second day of the Melrose trial brought out strong testimony for the prosecution.

The Supervisors held a conference yesterday morning at the hospital. Arrangements were made to advertise for bids for the long-delayed hospital additions.

Final distribution of the long-contested Mayberry estate was made by the court yesterday.

Wholesale Druggist Braun suffered arrest to bring city license ordinance before the Supreme Court.

Li Yon, the Chinaman arrested as a suspect in the Cummings murder case, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday.

AT THE CITY HALL

COMMISSIONERS VISIT GRIFFITH PARK

DISCUSS POSSIBILITIES OF THE SYLVAN DOMAIN

Mayor Snyder, who received the deed from Col. Griffith years ago, praises the man whom he has made a member of his official family—talk of a marriage.

Jupiter Plavus has been thwarted. Yesterday Henry Hopkins of the park department turned the trick yesterday.

Four times arrangements were made for an inspection of Griffith Park by the new Park Commission, and as many times the rain came down in torrents on the day selected. With the greatest secrecy plans were again made for the inspection trip, and before the storm King was aware of what was going on yesterday morning.

Today the city with the magnificent park property of 2013 acres, and who is now a member of the Park Commission, was in a sense the guest of honor and he imparted to the commissioners much interesting information and furnished many valuable ideas for the improvement of the city.

In addition the party numbered Park Commissioners John F. Jones, George W. Brown, Police Commissioner J. J. Lang, Mayor Snyder, and others.

From the City Hall the trip was made over the highway to Griffith Park, and the party was met by the city's chief park officer, Mr. D. P. Jones.

Col. Griffith consented to relate the incidents which led to the making of the donation. All his life Col. Griffith has been a lover of parks.

He purchased the land which he donated to the city of Los Angeles, which would redound to the great benefit of the generations to come as well as to the present.

During his lifetime, but to make sure that his high purpose did not overstep the mark, he made a systematic study of parks the world over. He crossed the ocean eleven times and visited every great park and met with the best of the world.

He was finally handed to Mayor Snyder in 1906 the deed which conveyed the park property to the city of Los Angeles.

Some idea of his high aims Col. Griffith imparted to his fellow commissioners following the presentation of the deed.

That was served under one of the mammoth oak trees in the park at noon. Mayor Snyder made a speech in which he said that the city of the future will doubly appreciate the gift of Col. Griffith.

Speeches in the same tenor were made by several other members of the party.

Ascent of "Griffith's Altar," emblemized with the head of the Sphinx cut in nature in the solid rock, was attempted by a few of the party, while the less active members strolled through the sylvan landscape.

Griffith Park, aside from its broad expanse, has a number of features which are not generally known. It includes the highest peak between the city and the Pacific Ocean.

Griffith Park, aside from its broad expanse, has a number of features which are not generally known. It includes the highest peak between the city and the Pacific Ocean.

Griffith Park, aside from its broad expanse, has a number of features which are not generally known. It includes the highest peak between the city and the Pacific Ocean.

Griffith Park, aside from its broad expanse, has a number of features which are not generally known. It includes the highest peak between the city and the Pacific Ocean.

Griffith Park, aside from its broad expanse, has a number of features which are not generally known. It includes the highest peak between the city and the Pacific Ocean.

Griffith Park, aside from its broad expanse, has a number of features which are not generally known. It includes the highest peak between the city and the Pacific Ocean.

Griffith Park, aside from its broad expanse, has a number of features which are not generally known. It includes the highest peak between the city and the Pacific Ocean.

Griffith Park, aside from its broad expanse, has a number of features which are not generally known. It includes the highest peak between the city and the Pacific Ocean.

Griffith Park, aside from its broad expanse, has a number of features which are not generally known. It includes the highest peak between the city and the Pacific Ocean.

AT THE COURT HOUSE

MELROSE LOOKED UGLY WHEN HE SHOT

STRONG TESTIMONY IN FAVOR OF THE PROSECUTION

Swanson and His Wife, the Hotel Keepers at Acton, Both Gave Evidence. Melrose Threatened Swanson After the Murder, Warned Him Not to Interfere.

George Washington would find out that he was really a liar if he had to testify in the Melrose murder trial.

They try to make out all the witnesses to be black-hearted liars, one at a time.

It is no fun to be a witness in this trial.

There was a good, honest Dutchman on the stand yesterday. He was evidently trying to tell the truth.

They begged him and nagged him and worried him the way a cat does a rat.

Whenever he said anything, they showed him that another time he had said something else.

At last, one of the lawyers turned on him a terrifying glare and said, "Now, which of these two statements you make is the truth?"

"That's the truth," he said miserably. "That is the truth," thundered the lawyer.

The witness sighed.

"Oh, I dunno," he said wearily.

Among the most impressive features of the trial are the private detectives, who have been hired to work up evidence for one side or the other.

For instance, Sheriff's hours was a babbling girl compared with these. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes. They go around with jeweled brows and eagle eyes.

THE INFERRIOR COURTS

LAI ON THE WHIP SO SHE WOULDN'T KICK

GOOD ARGUMENT WITH ANGRY DRIVER, NOT WITH COURT

Chinaman Arraigned in Connection with the Cummings Murder—Poon Again Making Their Appearance in the Police Court in Great Numbers.

Another fine was imposed in the Police Court yesterday, in consequence of cruelty to a horse.

A. Ashton, was seen driving along one of the streets unmercifully lashing a little mare hitched to a cart.

His abuse of the animal that three men remonstrated with him at different times, within a block of two, and finally left their work and had him arrested.

He lashed her until, as two of the men and the officer who made out the complaint testified, her flanks were cut open.

Ashton put up the defense that he had not drawn blood on the mare; that she was a kicker, and it was necessary to whip her.

His owner took the stand and testified that he had charged and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

Justice Austin found him guilty as charged, and gave him a lecture in the following language:

"I want to say to you, young man, that when you beat a horse so as to attract the attention of men who will pay for a beating, you are a criminal and unmercifully."

STATE SUPREME COURT

LICENSE TAX ATTACKED BEFORE HIGHER TRIBUNAL

F. W. BRAUN SUFFERS ARREST TO TEST CONSTITUTIONALITY

Druggist's Attorneys, Secure Habeas Corpus Writ And Arguments Will Be Made Today That Wholesale Liquor Provision is Invalid.

The City Council's license ordinance was junked up to the State Supreme Court yesterday afternoon by the wholesale druggists, who object to being taxed in that way.

At 10 o'clock this morning the high tribunal will listen to the arguments against the constitutionality of the much-opposed city law.

F. W. Braun heads the fight against the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

STATE SUPREME COURT

LICENSE TAX ATTACKED BEFORE HIGHER TRIBUNAL

F. W. BRAUN SUFFERS ARREST TO TEST CONSTITUTIONALITY

Druggist's Attorneys, Secure Habeas Corpus Writ And Arguments Will Be Made Today That Wholesale Liquor Provision is Invalid.

The City Council's license ordinance was junked up to the State Supreme Court yesterday afternoon by the wholesale druggists, who object to being taxed in that way.

At 10 o'clock this morning the high tribunal will listen to the arguments against the constitutionality of the much-opposed city law.

F. W. Braun heads the fight against the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

He is charged with violating the ordinance, and he has suffered himself to be arrested, haled into Police Court and fined $500.

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I feel it my duty to tell all young women how Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained several pounds of flesh in three months."

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness."

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG WOMEN.

All young girls at this period of life are currently invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given; her address is in Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham is inclined to the belief that her girls are pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries; less learning and more health needed.

system of railroads for shipping, and if a man must ship to a distance, what matters a few hundred miles more or less?

"But above all, you have those conditions of climate and soil under which a laborer can best live. With such a climate as this, I think I could be quite happy on a wage of four shillings a day. Here it is possible to live well, to bring up large families and to have a goodly bank account—all on a modest salary."

Mr. Winston is visiting the family at Rev. Horace Jones' residence. He will remain in this section until after Easter.

WILD WEST ROUND-UP

RIDGE RANCH, NEAR SANTA MONICA, WILL BE SCENE OF GENUINELY WESTERN INCIDENT THIS MONTH

A really-truly Wild West play, with a great number of stage, and the most famous of the ranch, will be the scene of the month in the hill country back of Santa Monica, when eight expert cowboys and a corps of lesser actors will round up the head of cattle on the ranch of Frederick H. Ridge.

Mr. Ridge, his family, and a number of invited guests from Los Angeles and other points will make up a four days' horse party at the ranch, where Mr. Ridge maintains a fine home.

This will be the biggest roundup since the history of the ranch. The cattle will be driven to a big fenced meadow eight miles from the ranch-house and not far from the town of Santa Monica.

Mr. Ridge, his family, and a number of invited guests from Los Angeles and other points will make up a four days' horse party at the ranch, where Mr. Ridge maintains a fine home.

This will be the biggest roundup since the history of the ranch. The cattle will be driven to a big fenced meadow eight miles from the ranch-house and not far from the town of Santa Monica.

Mr. Ridge, his family, and a number of invited guests from Los Angeles and other points will make up a four days' horse party at the ranch, where Mr. Ridge maintains a fine home.

This will be the biggest roundup since the history of the ranch. The cattle will be driven to a big fenced meadow eight miles from the ranch-house and not far from the town of Santa Monica.

Mr. Ridge, his family, and a number of invited guests from Los Angeles and other points will make up a four days' horse party at the ranch, where Mr. Ridge maintains a fine home.

This will be the biggest roundup since the history of the ranch. The cattle will be driven to a big fenced meadow eight miles from the ranch-house and not far from the town of Santa Monica.

Mr. Ridge, his family, and a number of invited guests from Los Angeles and other points will make up a four days' horse party at the ranch, where Mr. Ridge maintains a fine home.

This will be the biggest roundup since the history of the ranch. The cattle will be driven to a big fenced meadow eight miles from the ranch-house and not far from the town of Santa Monica.

Mr. Ridge, his family, and a number of invited guests from Los Angeles and other points will make up a four days' horse party at the ranch, where Mr. Ridge maintains a fine home.

This will be the biggest roundup since the history of the ranch. The cattle will be driven to a big fenced meadow eight miles from the ranch-house and not far from the town of Santa Monica.

Mr. Ridge, his family, and a number of invited guests from Los Angeles and other points will make up a four days' horse party at the ranch, where Mr. Ridge maintains a fine home.

This will be the biggest roundup since the history of the ranch. The cattle will be driven to a big fenced meadow eight miles from the ranch-house and not far from the town of Santa Monica.

Mr. Ridge, his family, and a number of invited guests from Los Angeles and other points will make up a four days' horse party at the ranch, where Mr. Ridge maintains a fine home.

This will be the biggest roundup since the history of the ranch. The cattle will be driven to a big fenced meadow eight miles from the ranch-house and not far from the town of Santa Monica.

Only

It is a hard job to find a man who is not a liar. There is nothing like a matter with the three. There are so many liars that it is no use looking for a man who is not a liar. The only way to find a man who is not a liar is to look for a man who is not a liar.

By Marion Harland

By Marion Harland

AN AUTOMOB

GOOD, simple little lunchcon for the automobile trip or any little jaunt, which may be carried in one of the invaluable tea baskets, consists of

Olive sandwiches,
Deviled eggs,
Grandmother's gingerbread,
Grapes,
Wafers,
Ginger ale and tea.

With the car, which a tasty housekeeper bestows upon her sandwiches and dainties, this may be made very tempting.

The eggs are hard-boiled and cut in half. The yellow is then removed and mixed to a smooth paste, with salt, pepper, mustard, celery salt and a little minced ham.
The eggs are refilled with this and tied in place with a baby ribbon.

The bread for the sandwiches cause I have managed to get along without and in spite of it. I am feeling very plainly that the possibility of my life's happiness being ruined by what he has been, or, more pertinently speaking, has not."

"I have always denied that parenthood promised infallibility. Though I am a man and can hardly advise a young woman, yet I say to 'Broken-hearted,' if you are sure of the true degree of assurance on your lover, let him have his share of it. With this assurance, that he loves you, and that he will protect you, and love her with all the assurance of his country, and with all the power at his command, and with all the purity of his father may occasion pain, yet she will be so so jealous of her parents, that she will be recompensed for her many times over.

Fatal duty and love are not so separated. It is not by the children's desire, but by the parents' desire, and the desire that they are on the earth. They were called into existence for the pleasure of their parents—often into circumstances of pain, poverty and want. Even under the best conditions the obligation of the parent to the child remains unaltered."

And how is that obligation discharged?
Often generously and nobly, but in many cases—such as the two mentioned above with a business neglect, or a narrow-minded Pharisaism that can provoke only wrath and contempt. We hear the children of such parents sometimes in a majority of such cases the unnatural child would be found to be the suffering of unnatural parents, who had not the tenderness and consideration that were only the child's due.
Moreover, the parent has absolutely no right to dictate to the child who is a little human being.

The judgment of the son or daughter in such cases is often as good as that of the parent. The child is actually believer that of the father or mother at the same age.

For the case of "sympathy" feeling regard. No should wound the mother of the girl he loves that heredit-arily frequently overemphasized. More the child's mother, and the child's mother of the house or to one's ancestor. Even of the child's mother, and the child's of the parents or grandparents have the chance of descending to possibility.

NOTE a communication signed
"Stop and Think" in your column.
The employee of the city has been my first cousin in this city, unaware that such marriages were prohibited. The three months it has been a little, a girl, over 25 months old, she is quite an intelligent child for her age, and at times as good as one could wish.
I have been very much interested in her since the morning when she would awaken the morning or from her nap in the middle of the night. I have not been and one of those mean, hateful spells, here an ugly temper is shown. We give her a light whipping at times, which has been from one month to the month.

I have been pursued by ill-fortune so much and so often in the past four years that I have been very much interested in the case. I have been very much believed that instead of misfortune, it was "visited" upon my child it has fallen upon me for the mistake (shall I call it?) I made in the marriage. I have not employed since marriage, and never I lost a position I would be at my last position January 31; have not since, all my efforts to obtain employment have been fruitless. But am diverting from the subject.

A GOOD, simple little luncheon for the automobile trip or any little jamt, which may be carried in one of the invaluable tea baskets, consists of

Olive sandwiches,
Deviled eggs,
Grandmother's gingerbread,
Grapes,
Wafers,
Ginger ale and tea.

With the care, which a tasty housekeeper bestows upon her sandwiches and dainties, this may be made very tempting.

The eggs are hard-boiled and cut in half. The yelow is then removed, with salt, pepper, mustard, celery salt and a little minced ham. The eggs are refilled with this and tied in place with a baby ribbon.

The bread for the sandwiches should, of course, be very fresh. After slicing thin it is cut out with a sandwich cutter and left flat or rolled and tied with a ribbon. The slices are buttered and filled with chopped olives mixed with a little mayonnaise. Sandwiches should not be left in the air a minute, but should be wrapped immediately in waxed paper.

The grandmother's gingerbread is a good sort of cake to take on such a trip, as something that will not get the hands sticky or crumbly. The cake will be found the most desirable. Trouble will be saved by slicing the bread before packing in the box. Like the sandwiches, it should be wrapped in waxed paper.

Grapes are also nice for a picnic lunch, as they will not cause much of a staining up. Some little wafers and a couple bottles of ginger ale will fill up the chinks beside the tea kettle.

"Please advise me if my marriage would be looked upon or deemed illegal, and that our child is an illegitimate one. I know of a few marriages in Chicago of well-to-do and highly respected people who were related as my wife and I and the offspring of some of these unions are as bright and healthful as one could wish. 'Tis so with my little one. She seldom goes outdoors, as I wife cannot carry her, but the weather does not seem too disagreeable to permit her to walk. She is but thirty-two inches tall and weighs thirty-two pounds. Is not that well below the average in height and weight for one of her age?"

partial duty. — SYMPATHY.

In my conduct in this department it has been my aim to indicate very fully and minutely that I consider, the responsibility of the parents to the children far greater than those of the children to the parents. I do not wish to be understood that they are on the earth. They are called into existence for the pleasure and benefit of the children. The absence of pain, poverty and toil. Even after the best considerations the obligation of the parent to the child remains the same. —

How is this obligation discharged? — Not generously and nobly, but in many cases such as the two mentioned above by a heartless neglect, or a narrow-minded Phariseism that can provoke wrath and contempt. We hear the usual "unnatural children" sometimes. — It is very easy to find fault with the child who would be found to be the offspring of unnatural parents, who had shown the tenderness and consideration that the child who was the child. — Moreover, the parent has absolutely no right to dictate to the child who is a son or woman grown.

It is the judgment of the son or daughter such cases is often as good as the parent, and should certainly be equal to that of the father or mother at the same age.

Or the case of "Sympathy" I feel no regret. He should remind the mother of the girl he loved that hereditary sin frequently overcomes the will so that it is not confined to one side of the house or to one ancestor. Each of them has many, as the virtues of the parents and grandparents, and the chances of descending to posterity.

CRACKER JACK.

(Contributed.)

MIX two cups of granulated sugar in a saucepan, stirring constantly to keep it from scorching. When the sugar is all melted and has become a dark-looking syrup, add to it two generous tablespoonsful of molasses and a piece of butter the size of an egg. Have ready the popped corn and pour the mixture over it. Be very careful not to get the hot syrup on the hands, as it makes a bad burn.

R. G. R. H.

CARPET CLEANSER.

(Contributed.)

MIX pound castile soap, Half pound red brick bat, Half pound salis of tartar. Four quarts boiling water. White of one egg. Dissolve in water on stove, and when cold add salts

FANCY DISHES

MEN who cook have, like the old Southern cooks, a puzzling indefiniteness about their recipes. A New Englander, ravished by the Southern kitchen that emanated from a Virginia kitchen ruled by an ebony queen, once tried to find out from the cook how this delicacy was made. "Lawsy, honey,"

NOTE and communication, signed "Wop and Think" is your column.

"Nearly four years ago I married my first cousin in this city, unaware that such a match would be taken so soon in my own State. We have one girl, over 25 months old. She is a fine child, and her mother, at the times as good as me could wish, at three months it has been a great deal better than I have been the morning or from her nap in the afternoon without a crying spell, and says, "Thou art a hateful spell, for an ugly temper is shown. A light whipping at times, which gradually quiet her."

"I have been pursued by ill-fortune so often and so often in the past four years of marriage that I have long since ceased that treated of misfortune be visited upon my child it has fallen me for the mistake (shall I call made in marrying. I have not my employment since marriage, and never I live a position I would be proud to occupy. I have been married my last position January have not since, all my efforts to obtain employment proving unsuccessful. But I am divorcing from the cabinet."

One of the convenient tea baskets.

PHOTOGRAPHS SHOWING HOW TO PREPARE THE AUTOMOBILE LUNCHEON.

"Awaiting your reply, which I request you to make in your most convenient time, I am yours very truly,"
"W. R. S."

Your letter shows that you have drifted into a morbid and unhealthy state of mind. In the first place, misfortune does not "follow a man" because of real or fancied wrong-doing. The most common one sees of prosperous sinners show this. In the second place, you have committed the most flagrant sign of immorality in marriage between first cousins is deemed inadvisable from purely physiological reasons. Just as the marriage of a delin-cate couple is thought imprudent. But such a couple will often have healthy children. The same may be said of first cousins are often normal. Look for the other cause of your "ill-fortune" than your marriage. Consider how many people in other circumstances have prospered.

Your little girl's fits of crying are probably a phase of the outbreak of her break her of them by any reasonable means. She is not larger for her age; but she is certainly smaller than the average. Your marriage is against the law of your marriage; consult lawyer. We are not familiar with the statutes of your State.

Recipes and Household Helps

CRACKER JACK. of tartar and the white of the egg. to a pint of chopped meat is added

CARPET CLEANSER.
NE pound castile soap. Half pound refined borax. Half pound salts of soda. One quart boiling water. White of one egg. Dissolve in water on stove, and when cold add salts

FANCY DISHES

MEN who cook have, like the old Southern cooks, a puzzling indefiniteness about their recipes. A New Englander, banished by the Sally Lunn that emanated from a Virginia kitchen by an ebony queen, once tried to find out from the cook how his delicacy was made. "Lawdy, honey,"

the response. "Eggs is skake I usually uses any, if dey's plenty of but I use plenty; but if de Miss has en hollerin about de bills I touches de light."

Chester Welch, who undoubtedly knows just how to cook like a gentleman an old mammy who never knows just how she does it, has recorded some types of bon vivants for the chafin h.

PRINCE OF WALES TOASTED CHEESE FROM THE ROYAL LODGE WINDSOR-Grate some old cheese, 1 tablespoonful of oil and a small

HOMES OF

THE ANNOUNCEMENT
DRAWN BY MALCOLM STR WILL BE GIVEN NEXT WE

of tartar and the white of the egg beaten light. This should be used on a carpet with a small scrubbing brush, cleansing a small space at a time, and then drying with a clean cloth wrung out in clean water. In the cleaning of red and deep colored carpets do not make too wet. If the mixture seems too thick it may be thinned with warm water. All carpets must be swept clean before applying the cleaning.

—A. B. C.

MEAT CROQUETTES.

(Contributed.)

CHOP meat very fine after freezing from all fat and gristle. Allow a pint of milk to each pound of meat. The milk should be put in the fire while two tablespoonsful of sugar and one of butter are rubbed together. Pour the hot milk on these and cook all to a smooth paste. Mentions dish with anchovy paste, put in good sized piece of butter and scramble the eggs. When they are just turning put in oysters and serve on anchovy toast. Three eggs and 6 oysters are about right for two persons.

MADE BY WEL

HARRY LEHR'S BOUQUET BORET, an invention for the Ladies!—a gallon of orange and lemon ice, mixed and divided in half. Color one-half green, and pour in creme de menthe to taste. Color the other one-half violet, and use creme yvette. Use vegetable coloring.

THE TEN AMEL

to a pint of chopped meat is added tablespoonful of chopped parsley, salt and pepper to taste, the grated radish a half lemon and a tablespoonful of grated onion. The seasoned meat then mixed with the paste and the whole turned out on a cloth. Dip first one end in bread crumbs, and fry in deep fat. I serve them with cream sauce and French fried potatoes.

C. H.

MAYONNAISE DRESSING.

(Contributed.)

BOil three fresh eggs ten minutes and beat the yolks in a bowl until powdered. Take the yolks of three raw eggs and add cayenne pepper and salt to taste. Use with these one pint bottle of the best olive oil, drop slowly, stirring the mixture, and as it thickens cup it with cold vinegar. Be very careful to stir one way, as a great deal depends on this.

C. H.

WELL-KNOWN MEN

and keep the meat hot in the other part; when the rice is soft strain it, slice the pork, and lay it on the rice and serve with Kentucky whiskey. Plebeian, but perfect.

SAM WARD'S MUSHROOMS A LA BORDELAISE—Mince the stems with fine herbs, bread crumbs and garlic. Season with pepper and salt. Fill the concave caps with this, put a layer of olive oil in the bottom of the pan; cover, and put them over the steaming dish. If possible get the orange mushrooms or the morel, as the caps are not so delicate.

AMERICAN GIRLS

THE TEN AMERICAN GIRLS WEEK. THEIR RESIDENCES

By Marion Harland

"MY is it that I can not get my house finished? Others seem to. I have three little girls, aged 1, 5 and 9 years. I do (or try to do) my own sewing, cooking, broom cleaning and house cleaning, and take care of a big garden every summer alone. I can not afford to hire any help in any way. I am up at 6 o'clock in the morning, until 11 or 12 at night, and can not get nearly everything done then. I am not strong or healthy, yet I am not sick, but I get weary before half my day's work is done, but I keep on with my seldom a half hour's rest all day. I am not a swift worker, but do not think I am unusually slow. I get no time for housework or flower and garden work. I take no recreation whatever. I may go out any, only to do my necessary shopping, not even to my nearest neighbor. My children are not wayward and do not seem to make any more work than any ordinary child, but I have no time to spend with them as I would like to do. It is just work, work, and nothing else, I feel as if I were losing all interest in life, and I am getting old, forgetting all I ever knew. Yet what can I do? Can you tell me? I have no modern appliances—no help in the kitchen, no washing machine or wringer, and can not afford to buy one, for we have had sickness and that has cost me money. I am sure my errors are, for errors there must be. I am 57 years old and am miles, yes thousands of miles, away from mother and friends.

"A DISCOURAGED FRIEND."

I cleaned them the best I could, they still need something, and I afraid of ruining them experimenting." Can you please give me a recipe for a wash for white fabrics of each ingredient? I was once told to make it, but the quantity of was not mentioned, and the result a thick indigestible mixture.

(4) Also a receipt for "band patients." I. C. M.

(1) Business addresses, as you know are not given in this column, but I have sent you by mail the name of the manufacturer of the best oil heater I know. Any such heater needs a little water when first lighted, or it is likely to choke.

(2) The only thing I can recommend is stale bread. This must be wet and dry, and the bread must be constantly fresh. The process is somewhat tedious, but I know no other way to cleanse wall paper unless you call a professional renovator.

(3) I never "furnish" a "furnace" but it sounds attractive. Will you be so kind to send me the recipe? I have a "furnace" but it is not so useful as I want to see under that name. You mean hamburger steak?

"HOW may I remove pinkish stains from my white silk dress which were caused by getting down and coming in contact with pink ink blot?"

(4) Will some one kindly send me a cord pill pickles? JOSEPHINE K.

(1) Try washing it with ether, as the stains be small and inconspicuous.

The chief trouble is that you do too much—a mistake you make in common with many other conscientious women. No slave could be worse driven. As a result you will be old before your time, and are quite likely to break down utterly and be a burden and helpless for the rest of your life.

In the first place, if there are not some things you can wisely neglect. Do not wear flannels, stockings and other pieces of that sort. Try to simplify all your life as far as you can. Train the children to save you steps by picking up and putting away. Reduce the size of your garden. Buy a little of the necessities of life in the middle of the day. Never mind if there is a little dust in the corners. You are worth more than the house. Try to make your necessities pay for themselves as much as possible, and in spite of the debt, put some of those savings into a washing machine and other labor-savers and you will probably thereby spare yourself further doctor's bills.

From my heart I sympathize with you and wish I could help you to make life less of a burden. I am glad to hear that but I feel that your policy is most short-sighted. You are wearing yourself out as a drudge, and when your strength is gone, you will be added to the canning vegetables. I feel that it is a pity to see a few words, such as "Canning Fruit and Vegetables" published by H. I. Blitt, in which I bought the book, his address Pittsburgh, Pa. As his methods are rightly stated, I am tempted to try. I am sorry to give the formula, but I most cordially endorse his method of putting up the vegetables and fruits. They are most delicious and contain acids and are ready for immediate use. I am not an advertising agent for these books, but you can know for yourself how good they are. If you want to you can try his permission to publish the formula.

MARY P.

The one exception to the rule concerning the mention of proprietary articles in the case of books and must be made for the pleasure in giving the name of this volume to the correspondent who sends it.

A BIG BROTHER contributes this bit of useful information to our exchange:

"A reader of your paper asks the following question: 'Will you please furnish me with the information how or what to use in polishing horns?' I successfully use the following process for polishing horns for ornaments:

"First place the horn in scalding water to remove the cogs. Take a piece of wood one foot long, and use it to fill the horn; drill a hole in the horn and screw fast in the piece of wood; place the horn in a bucket of water and pour a quart of turpentine over the horn with a piece of broken glass into

AN esteemed correspondent sends the following recipes:

"Use an earthen bowl, take a hot water, make a light suds of soap (in little bowls may be added), quickly rub the horns with the hands, rubbing between the hands. Avoid a scrubbing. Rinse in warm water and dry. Then rinse in cold water, and water, squeezing, water out each time. Lay smoothly between two clean towels until nearly dry. Then shake up or bang up on itself to dry.

"To iron—Lay piece flat down on a smooth surface, such as a table sheet, over it four sheets of blotting, each two overlaid together and smooth with a clean, smooth piece of flannel. Rub the piece with a muslin. Rub the piece with a muslin.

It is nearly transparent. Let horn dry. Make horn into a cloth crosspiece of the same size as the piece of leather. Complete smoothing process by drawing a line of wax across or around the same, upon which the beads and stones are run lined off. The horn can then be polished by rubbing briskly with the hand or a piece of fine cloth.

Thank this well satisfactorily answered "A Horn of Plenty" paper, I subscribe myself, yours truly.

"A HORN POLISHER."

66 N YOUR per a correspondent stated that she knew of a small oil heater that did not smoke or smell. She would like to know if you tell me the name of it, also where it can be procured and the price? I have an honest intention to do on account of the heavy odor, and if not closely watched it will smoke and blacken everything; this I have learned to my sorrow.

(2) I would also be very thankful if you could tell me how to clean wallpaper and how to get rid of stains when smoke has become smoked, also how I can have both light and dark wall paper that has been smoked and how to make it look as if it were new.

NE who signs herself "Your sincerely," to make home work over "good," sends the following along the same lines:

"Tell your readers to use a wringer."
"F. M. A." formula is excellent. It is a formula that will not water over the soap. Using the wringer from soda to rinse makes less work in rinsing.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE HOMES OF THE TEN AMERICAN GIRLS
OWN BY MALCOLM STRAUSS IS DELAYED ONE WEEK. THEIR RESIDENCES BE GIVEN NEXT WEEK

in the United States market prices sufficiently high to be offset by the decrease in earnings for the next quarter reported in the closing yesterday. The corporation's 5-per-cent bonds dipped to a low record on the curb this morning at $115, but a complete recovery followed. The buying of stocks on the exchange was considerably checked in the account of inside and foreign interests, such as have not been possible in these stocks for a long time past. The market for the new issue of the general market. The heavy selling of Ireland, which was a feature yesterday, continued today, and the price of the stock was evidence of little support in this market. The London market was very weak in connection with the visit of one of the 47th 6th ton in the London market. The market for the new issue of the United States of America and Copper ner, W. A. Knight, D. W. Bailey, G. B. Green, George J. Cochran, M. Jacques, W. W. Beckett, A. Place, John Stafford, B. C. Cory, H. J. Bailey, G. F. Hartup, S. C. A. Robinson, C. M. Parker, F. E. Robinson, B. Johnson, T. C. Miller, W. H. Herring, E. A. Healy.

[illegible]

The board has felt for a long time the institution was handicapped by incompleteness in its official records and as the endowment fund is condition to warrant a more liberality, it was decided to recreate the office of president. To suggest is like putting a match to the and you miss  well attempt;

Dr. Deimel name on centrade marklabel.
sale at best houses where.

SHOE CO. F. F. MERRIMAN W. A. INNES
roadway. 231 W. Third.

WONDERFUL MEDICINE.
CHAM'S PILLS.
Affections and Nervous Disorders everywhere in houses, life and the.

TELEPHON Main 942
HERN CALIFORNIA GRA
NEW YORK STOCKS
Room 112, Bismarck Bldg. CO
LIFE INSURANCE
MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE
J. K. Fittinghough, President, Asst. Sec. 612-417-74
ER. H. FISHER, Manager, 412-413 Broadway is the most durable and easy running machine Broas and New Stars
J. K. COWAN, W. 412 Mo. St. 4

AND STOCK CO.
CHICAGO GRAIN
BIRD AND SPRING STS.

CO. Newark, Apr. 30 Larger Annual Dividends.
Bridges, B. & G. B.
Tel. James 4511.

Way Drapery
urniture Co.
New Goods. 127 S. Broadway.

